Havana Salsa Viviana Carballo, 2006-08-22 With more than seventy mouthwatering recipes this vibrant memoir by food writer Viviana Carballo shares the Havana of her childhood warm nights pounding surf energetic music and the memorable meals that both nourished and delighted her and her family throughout the years In the 1940s and 1950s at the height of government corruption Havana was a nonstop party Food and music defined the culture and the pervading sensuality the physical beauty of the city itself with its frisson of danger made it a magnet for tourists gangsters and the world's most glamorous celebrities This was the Cuba of Viviana Carballo's magical childhood and adventurous adolescence Born in 1939 she was the only child of a stylish and spirited woman and a handsome astrologer and writer whose passion for food ignited Carballo's own taste for the exotic eclectic cuisine for which Havana had become known By the time she reached her teenage years sultry nights dancing at the Tropicana and rubbing elbows with the likes of Ernest Hemingway Meyer Lansky and Guillermo Cabrera Infante nourished her hunger for the rhythm and creativity pulsating throughout her beloved city But all of that changed in 1959 when Fidel Castro took command of this rollicking paradise turning it into a country marked by extreme poverty food shortages power outages and daily water stoppages In 1961 Carballo left her beloved country with the clothes on her back and no idea when she would ever see her husband family or friends again It is only through her memories that she has ever returned to the place that defined her Havana Salsa is a collection of stories about her large extended family a rather eccentric group who conducted their lives against the extraordinary backdrop of Havana and of her own experiences amid the city's former delicious decadence It also showcases the food and recipes Carballo associates with each delightful family memory beginning with her childhood in the forties calabaza fritters sweet plantain tortillas and oxtail stew through the sensual fifties roast shoulder of lamb Cuban bouillabaisse and then the first eighteen months of Castro's revolution mango pie pollito en cazuela and papas with chorizo Havana Salsa tells the history of Carballo's Havana as only she can through the intimate and unifying experience of food family and friends
