The Biker Men In The Shadows Book English Edition:

Shadow of the Raven David Sundstrand, 2007-02-06 Francisco Flynn is an officer in Land Management in the Mojave Desert and he wouldn't have it any other way. The son of an Irish immigrant railroad man and a half Mexican half Paiute mother, he lives in the caboose that his father brought up to a hilltop when the railroad stopped running there. Frank loves the desert and the animals that live there. He loathes the wealthy hunters who hire Indians to lead them to where they can shoot Bighorn rams and take their heads to hang as trophies on the walls of their fancy studies. Over the years, Frank has come upon dead bodies, the remains of people who got lost and ran out of water, their corpses drying into mummies in the desert heat. But now he finds a dead man who has only recently lost his life and it looks very much like he's been murdered. His shoes are gone, he's shirtless, and there is no canteen anywhere in sight. A day or so later, Frank hears word of a trio of bikers who have blown into town looking for a missing comrade. They pick fights in the local bar and don't hesitate to kill when it suits them. Frank is certain that the dead man he found is connected to them and that many people could be endangered, including the woman reporter he has learned to love. Frank will do anything to rid his desert of the bikers who are spreading danger and hate, including putting his own life on the line. With Shadow of the Raven, David Sundstrand adds a shining new voice to Southwestern crime fiction.

The Shadow Knows Benneth Nnaedozie Okpala, 2006-08-05 The enduring cultural precepts of the indomitable ethnic Igbo of Nigeria have sustained their revered human endowments for ages: morality, imagination, self-awareness, independent will. But severe economic deprivation at the wake of a lost civil war pitted their acute sense of survival against these cultural precepts. The Shadow Knows tells a bemusing story of a reprehensible life of a desperate young man under the menacing weight of his impeaching conscience and the damning judgement of God and Man. He grantically tries to escape. A contextual story of Igbo thoughts and culture under strict traditional rules of actions and consequences.

Shadows of Doubt Barry Keith Grant, 2011 In Shadows of Doubt, Barry Keith Grant questions the idea that Hollywood movies reflect moments of crisis in the dominant image of masculinity. Arguing instead that part of the mythic function of genre movies is to offer audiences an ongoing dialogue on issues of gender, Grant
