The Beijing Duck:

The Beijing Duck Thomas deKooning, 2014-11-06 Ramone Ramone wasn't having a good day but then that was nothing new. Pouring himself a drink and lighting another cigarette he takes a moment to review the case. A half-baked artist has an apartment full of slashed paintings another suit took a wrong turn out of a high window and his favorite pawn shop isn't as safe as it used to be. To make things worse his best hope to unravel things is a space cadet hippy that never left the seventies and a dead cat with a diamond collar. With one foot on the pavement and the other in a glass of whiskey Ramone is left to tie it all together. At least he has his girlfriend Li and Jerome the best partner the sixth grade ever produced. Maybe the life of a private eye isn't so bad after all but what does any of this have to do with a duck. The Firemaker Peter May, 2018-01-09 The first of Peter May's electrifying China Thrillers featuring Beijing detective Li Yan and American forensic pathologist Margaret Campbell and the explosive chemistry between them. Stunningly original. Scotland on Sunday Highly recommended. Larry Gandle. Deadly Pleasures A fascinating look at the new China. Kirkus Reviews A grotesquely burned corpse found in a city park is a troubling mystery for Beijing detective Li Yan. Yan devoted to his career as a means of restoring the respect his family lost during the Cultural Revolution needs outside help if he is to break the case. The unidentified cadaver in turn provides a welcome distraction for forensic pathologist Margaret Campbell. Campbell married to her work and having left America and her broken past behind throws herself into the investigation and before long uncovers a bizarre anomaly. An unlikely partnership develops between Li and Campbell as they follow the resulting lead. A fiery and volatile chemistry ignites exposing not only their individual demons but an even greater evil a conspiracy that threatens their lives as well as those of millions of others. Number One Chinese Restaurant Lillian Li, 2018-06-19 The Beijing Duck House in Rockville Maryland is not only a beloved go-to setting for hunger pangs and celebrations it is its own world inhabited by waiters and kitchen staff who have been fighting loving and aging within its walls for decades. When disaster strikes this working family's controlled chaos is set loose forcing each character to confront the conflicts that fast-paced restaurant life has kept at bay. Amazon.com
