James Joyce and Classical Modernism Leah Culligan Flack, 2020-02-06 James Joyce and Classical Modernism contends that the classical world animated Joyce's defiant innovative creativity and cannot be separated from what is now recognized as his modernist aesthetic Responding to a long standing critical paradigm that has viewed the classical world as a means of granting a coherent order shape and meaning to Joyce's modernist innovations Leah Flack explores how and why Joyce's fiction deploys the classical as the language of the new This study tracks Joyce's sensitive on going readings of classical literature from his earliest work at the turn of the twentieth century through to the appearance of Ulysses in 1922 the watershed year of high modernist writing In these decades Joyce read ancient and modern literature alongside one another to develop what Flack calls his classical modernist aesthetic which treats the classical tradition as an ally to modernist innovation This aesthetic first comes to full fruition in Ulysses which self consciously deploys the classical tradition to defend stylistic experimentation as a way to resist static paralyzing notions of the past Analysing Joyce's work through his career from his early essays Flack ends by considering the rich afterlives of Joyce's classical modernist project with particular attention to contemporary works by Alison Bechdel and Maya Lang

The Celtic Unconscious Richard Barlow, 2017-03-30 The Celtic Unconscious offers a vital new interpretation of modernist literature through an examination of James Joyce's employment of Scottish literature and philosophy as well as a commentary on his portrayal of shared Irish and Scottish histories and cultures Barlow also offers an innovative look at the strong influences that Joyce's predecessors had on his work including James Macpherson James Hogg David Hume Robert Burns and Robert Louis Stevenson The book draws upon all of Joyce's major texts but focuses mainly on Finnegans Wake in making three main interrelated arguments that Joyce applies what he sees as a specifically Celtic viewpoint to create the atmosphere of instability and skepticism of Finnegans Wake that this reasoning is divided into contrasting elements which reflect the deep religious and national divide of post 1922 Ireland but which have their basis in Scottish literature and finally that despite the illustration of the contrasts and divisions of Scottish and Irish history Scottish literature and philosophy are commissioned by Joyce as part of a program of artistic decolonization which is enacted in Finnegans Wake The Celtic

Unconscious is the first book length study of the role of Scottish literature in Joyce's work and is a vital contribution to the fields of Irish and Scottish studies This book will appeal to scholars and students of Joyce and to students interested in Irish studies Scottish studies and English literature The Cambridge Companion to the Novel Eric Bulson,2018-06-28 This Companion focuses on the novel as a global genre with a 2 000 year history The first section includes an examination of the various genres out of which it emerged epic history romance the picaresque and the different ways in which fiction and realism magical hyper and social were developed in response to specific political social and economic forces The second section focuses on how the novel works considering how it has played a crucial role in the formation of more abstract social political and familial identities The third section considers what the novel has become and will continue to become in the twenty first century It examines the recent interest in graphic novels as well as data digitization and a global literary marketplace's role in shaping the future of the novel This book will be a key resource for students and scholars studying the novel as a genre

Attachment and Loss in the Works of James Joyce Linda Horsnell,2021-11-04 Using John Bowlby's Attachment Theory as a frame of reference Attachment and Loss in the Works of James Joyce critically analyzes James Joyce's representation of grief Based on cognitive emotional and behavioral elements Attachment Theory allows for new and innovative readings to emerge which differ from those offered by Freudian Lacanian and Jungian paradigms Acknowledging the importance of the Theory of Mind and Reader Response this book uses the concept of internal working models to elucidate how the childhood experiences with which Joyce has endowed his protagonists ultimately leads to how they respond to loss The texts of Dubliners Portrait of the Artist and Ulysses show how central separation and loss were to Joyce's work It provides examples of such experiences in different age groups under differing circumstances and at different stages in the grief process Attachment Theory highlights the complexity of human relationships throughout the life cycle not only how they can affect the grief process but how grief affects them

Anglo-Irish Modernism and the Maternal D. Stubbings,2000-09-19 Anglo Irish Modernism and the Maternal argues that a focus on the construction of mother figures in Irish culture illuminates the extraordinary achievement of the Irish modernists Essentially the seminal Irish modernists Moore Joyce Synge Yeats and O Casey resisted those mother figures sanctioned by cultural discourses re writing her in order to elude her In this they not only re constituted language and representation they accessed and re figured their own creative selves

Modernism and Close Reading David James,2020-04-30 The kinship between modernism and close reading has long been taken for granted But for that reason it has also gone unexamined As the archives timeframes and cultural contexts of global modernist studies proliferate the field's rapport with close reading no longer appears self evident or guaranteed even though for countless students studying literary modernism still invariably means studying close reading This authoritative collection of essays illuminates close reading's conceptual institutional and pedagogical genealogies as a means of examining its enduring potential David James brings together a cast of world renowned scholars to offer an account of some of the things we might otherwise know and need to know about the history of modernist theories of reading before then providing a sense of how the futures for critical reading look different in light of the multiple ways in which modernism has been close read Modernism and Close Reading responds to a contemporary climate of unprecedented reconstitution for the field it takes stock of close reading's methodological possibilities in the wake of modernist studies geographical literary historical and interdisciplinary expansions and it shows how the political ethical and aesthetic consequences of attending to matters of form complicate ideological preconceptions about the practice of formalism itself By reassessing the intellectual commitments and institutional conditions that have shaped modernism in criticism as well as in the classroom we are able to ask new questions about close reading that resonate across literary and cultural studies Invigorating that critical venture this volume enriches our vocabulary for addressing close reading's perpetual development and diversification Understanding Bakhtin, Understanding Modernism Philippe Birgy, 2023-10-05 Explores and illuminates the impact of the Russian philosopher Mikhail Bakhtin on our understanding of literary modernism This volume explores the subject of modernism as seen through the lens of Bakhtinian criticism and in doing so offers a rounded and up to date example of the application of Bakhtinian theory to a field of research The contributors consider the global spread of modernism and the variety of its manifestations as well as modernism's relationship to popular culture and its collective elaboration which are dominant concerns in Bakhtin's thinking As with other volumes in the Understanding Philosophy Understanding Modernism series the volume is divided into three parts Part 1 provides readings of Bakhtin's work in the context of literary modernism Part 2 features case studies of modernist art and artists and their relation to Bakhtinian theory The final part provides a glossary of key terms in Bakhtin's work A Literary History of Reconciliation Jan Frans van Dijkhuizen, 2018-09-06 From William Shakespeare to Marilynne Robinson this book examines representations of interpersonal reconciliation in works of literature focusing on how these representations draw on the language of divine forgiveness Christian theology sees divine forgiveness as conditional upon a sinner's remorse and self abasement before God but also as a form of grace unconditional and rooted only in divine love Van Dijkhuizen explores what happens when this paradoxical forgiveness paradigm comes to serve as a template for interpersonal reconciliation As A Literary History of Reconciliation shows literary writers imagine interpersonal reconciliation as being centrally about power and hierarchy and present forgiveness without power as longed for but ever elusive Drawing on major works of literature from the early modern era to the present day this book explores works by John Milton Virginia Woolf J M Coetzee Ian McEwan and others to craft a literary history that will appeal to readers interested in literature religion and philosophy Bestiarius Mariaelisa Dimino, Alessia Polatti, Roberta Zanoni, 2018-10-25 T00:00:00+02:00 The human animal relationship has always been characterized by a wide net of interactions and exchanges By providing an overview of the concept of animality and of the several meanings attached to it this book aims at rethinking the real nature of this notion towards a new definition of both the human and the animal The authors highlight the need to overcome the traditional tendency to read the animal merely as a symbol a metaphor or an allegory whose only purpose is that of representing and negotiating human power relations of race class and gender Within this context the edited collection Bestiarius intends to contribute to the present debate on Animal Studies by focusing on literary texts and discursive practices which reveal the epistemological and cultural dynamics that structure the very representation of the animal
