The Magic Box Rob Young, 2021-08-03 A LOUDER THAN WAR BOOK OF THE YEAR A riveting journey into the psyche of Britain through its golden age of television and film a cross genre feast of moving pictures from classics to occult hidden gems The Magic Box is the nation s visual self portrait in technicolour detail The definition of gripping Truly a trove of wyrd treasures BENJAMIN MYERS A lovingly researched history of British TV that recalls the brilliant the bizarre and the unworldly GUARDIAN A reclamation not just of a visual golden age but of Britain as a darkly magical place THE SPECTATOR A feat of argument description and affection FINANCIAL TIMES Young unearths the ghosts of TV past and Britain s dark psyche HERALD Highly entertaining A fabulous treasure trove SCOTSMAN Young is a phenomenal scholar OBSERVER Impassioned

THE CRITIC Growing up in the 1970s Rob Young's main storyteller was the wooden box with the glass window in the corner of the family living room otherwise known as the TV set. Before the age of DVDs and Blu-ray discs, YouTube and commercial streaming services, watching television was a vastly different experience. You switched on, you sat back and you watched. There was no pause or fast forward button. The cross-genre feast of moving pictures produced in Britain between the late 1950s and late 1980s, from Quatermass and Tom Jones to The Wicker Man and Brideshead Revisited, from A Canterbury Tale and The Go Between to Bagpuss and Children of the Stones, and from John Betjeman's travelogues to ghost stories at Christmas, contributed to a national conversation and collective memory. British-made sci-fi, folk horror, period drama, and televisual grand tours played out tensions between the past and the present, dramatised the fractures and injustices in society, and acted as a portal for magical and ghostly visions. In The Magic Box, Rob Young takes us on a fascinating journey into this influential golden age of screen and discovers what it reveals about the nature and character of Britain, its uncategorisable people, and buried histories, and how its presence can still be felt on screen in the twenty-first century. A forensic dissection, this tightly packed treatise takes pains to illustrate how what we view affects how we view ourselves. TOTAL FILM

The Magic Statue Roger George Clark, 2004-02 What do you do when your garden statue comes alive and goes on the rampage? That's the challenge facing two teenagers, Scott and Brandon, when they're left alone in an island cottage during their half-term holiday. Scott Buchanan is English, Brandon Donnelly American. They're best friends, but their friendship is tested to the limit, and their holiday plans thrown into chaos when a magic statue bursts into their lives. The statue, who's called Alexander, comes from Ancient Greece. Alexander finds it difficult to adjust to the modern world. Everywhere he goes, he brings bad luck. What should have been a fun holiday turns into a nightmare, and a battle for survival, as Alexander blunders and stirs up trouble. To make matters worse, Scott and Brandon find themselves fighting a gang of school bullies. They also have to complete a holiday task set by their history teacher, or they're in trouble. And all the time, Scott's guardian, Uncle Henry, who's away on business, keeps phoning and nagging them to get on with their homework. How can the teenagers cope with the pressure and solve all their problems? The Saturday Magazine, 1833

John Buchan, 1875-1940, was a Scottish historian, novelist, and politician.
