Queer. Southern. Women.* E. Patrick Johnson, 2018-10-22 Drawn from the life narratives of more than seventy African American queer women who were born raised and continue to reside in the American South this book powerfully reveals the way these women experience and express racial sexual gender and class identities all linked by a place where such identities have generally placed them on the margins of society Using methods of oral history and performance ethnography E Patrick Johnson's work vividly enriches the historical record of racialized sexual minorities in the South and brings to light the realities of the region's thriving black lesbian communities At once transcendent and grounded in place and time these narratives raise important questions about queer identity formation community building and power relations as they are negotiated within the context of southern history Johnson uses individual stories to reveal the embedded political and cultural ideologies of the self but also of the listener and society as a whole These breathtakingly rich life histories show afresh how black female sexuality is and always has been an integral part of the patchwork quilt that is southern culture Uncle Max Chris Kenry, 2012-07-19 The Summer From Hell Meet fourteen year old Dillon a self-described nerdy band fag in too small clothes accessorized by a clarinet case and orthodontic headgear with a robin's egg blue satin strap Fresh from the rigors of junior high school gym class and daily torment by studly jock Aaron Lewis Dillon is in desperate need of a three month reprieve Alas that isn't to be not after his mother Lana stumbles across his stash of empty wine bottles and Sears catalogue pages featuring scantily clad male torsos Unfortunately for Dillon Lana has recently swapped booze and overflowing cleavage for fervent devotion to the one man who can never leave her the Lord Jesus Christ and to the Lord's earthbound henchman Wayne Blandings Assistant Pastor at The Church of the Divine Redeemer Alarmed at the diabolic evidence of Dillon's drunken perverted nocturnal hobbies Lana and Wayne conclude that Bible Camp is his only hope Now on the verge of being shipped off to the Christian barracks Dillon needs salvation of a different kind Before you can say halleluiahs Dillon's personal savior materializes fabulously shirtless and smoking a French cigarette Perpetually on the lam Uncle Max needs a place to hang and hide out for awhile But the flamboyant francophile can't seem to elude a colorful mini entourage that includes his parole officer Meredith his sexy mountaineer boyfriend Serge and fellow con artist antiques dealer Jane Nguyen Much to Dillon's amazement loathsome Lana isn't all he has in common with the dashing family black sheep Sprung from the proverbial closet at last Dillon finds himself under Max's supervision for the summer This entails Hitchcock films Balzac novels and a crash course in shoplifting from which Dillon swiftly graduates to insurance fraud and art heists Now as Max and Jane's devoted sidekick he's the third member of the notorious Balzac Bunch who specialize in befriending blue haired blue blooded bridge players and then relieving them of their priceless antiques Too quickly sultry July gives way to steamy August and the heat is on in more
