The Land Of Green Plums:

The Land of Green Plums Herta Müller, 1998 Mueller takes an unflinching look at the alienation and complexity of a rapidly changing Eastern Europe focusing on a group of young friends in Ceausescu's Romania The Land of Green Plums by Herta Müller Gillian Bouras, Herta Müller, 2001 The Land of Green Plums Herta Müller, 1996-11-15 In Romania at the height of Ceausescu's reign several young people leave the impoverished provinces for the city in search of better prospects but they must face betrayal suicide and the reality that even the strongest must bend to the oppressors or r

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2010-09-29 Types and stereotypes is the fourth and last volume of a path breaking multinational literary history that incorporates innovative features relevant to the writing of literary history in general Instead of offering a traditional chronological narrative of the period 1800-1989 the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe approaches the region's literatures from five complementary angles focusing on literature's participation in and reaction to key political events literary periods and genres the literatures of cities and sub regions literary institutions and figures of representation The main objective of the project is to challenge the self enclosure of national literatures in traditional literary histories to contextualize them in a regional perspective and to recover individual works writers and minority literatures that national histories have marginalized or ignored Types and stereotypes brings together articles that rethink the figures of National Poets figurations of the Family Women Outlaws and Others as well as figures of Trauma and Mediation As in the previous three volumes the historical and imaginary figures discussed here constantly change and readjust to new political and social conditions An Epilogue complements the basic history focusing on the contradictory transformations of East Central European literary cultures after 1989 This volume will be of interest to the region's literary historians to students and teachers of comparative literature to cultural historians and to the general public interested in exploring the literatures of a rich and resourceful cultural region

The Exile and Return of Writers from East-Central Europe John Neubauer, Borbála Zsuzsanna Török, 2009 Main description This first comparative study of writers who fled from both the Nazi and Communist dictatorships in East Central Europe includes interpretations of individual trajectories literary works and exile literary cultures A historical and theoretical introduction provides an overview of the events and studies exile cultures from Paris London and New York to Moscow Toronto and Buenos Aires Interpretations of select writers are complemented by studies of the main exile journals publishers and associations Special attention is devoted to the problems of homecoming Post-Multicultural Writers as Neo-cosmopolitan Mediators Sneja Gunew, 2017-02-01 Post Multicultural Writers as Neo Cosmopolitan Mediators argues the need to move beyond the monolingual paradigm within Anglophone literary studies Using Lyotard's concept of post as the future anterior back to the future this book sets up a concept of post multiculturalism salvaging the elements within multiculturalism that have been forgotten in its contemporary denigration Gunew attaches this discussion to debates in neo cosmopolitanism over the last decade creating a framework for re evaluating post multicultural and Indigenous writers in settler colonies such as Canada and Australia She links these writers with transnational writers across diasporas from Eastern Europe South East Asia China and India to construct a new framework for literary and cultural studies After Cosmopolitanism Rosi Braidotti, Patrick Hanafin, Bolette Blaagaard, 2013 At a time when social and political reality seems to move away from the practice of cosmopolitanism whilst being in serious need of a new international framework to regulate global interaction what are the new definitions and practices of cosmopolitanism Including contributions from leading figures across the humanities and social sciences After Cosmopolitanism takes up this question as its central challenge Its core argument is the idea that our globalised condition forms the heart of contemporary cosmopolitan claims which do not refer to a transcendental ideal but are rather immanent to the material conditions of global interdependence But to what extent do emerging definitions of cosmopolitanism contribute to new representative democratic models of governance The present volume argues that a radical transformation of cosmopolitanism is already ongoing and that more effort is needed to take stock of transformations which are both necessary and possible To this end After Cosmopolitanism calls for an understanding of cosmopolitanism that is more attentive to the material reality of our social and political situation and less focused on linguistic analyses of its metaphorical implications It is the call for a cosmopolitanism that is also a cosmopolitics

Women's Narratives and the Postmemory of Displacement in Central and Eastern Europe Simona Mitroiu, 2018-10-15 This volume explores the different mechanisms and forms of expression used by women to come to terms with the past focusing on the variety and complexity of women's narratives of displacement within the context of Central and Eastern Europe The first part addresses the quest for personal post memory from the perspective of the second and third generations The touching collaboration established in reconstructing individual and family post memories offers invaluable insights into the effects of displacement coping mechanisms and resilience Adopting the idea that the text itself becomes a site of post memory the second part of the volume brings into discussion different sites and develops further this topic in relation to the creative process and visual text The last part questions the past in relation to trauma and identity displacement in the countries where abusive regimes destroyed social bonds and had a lasting impact on the people's lives Russian Life, 1997

Modern European Borders in Fiction Andrew Hammond, 2025-09-18 There are few features of the contemporary world more significant than national and regional borders In modern Europe the practices of human division have defined the continent from the early years of the Cold War to the present barriers of Fortress Europe whose exposure of irregular migrants to trafficking discrimination and deportation is rarely absent from the daily news Modern European Borders in Fiction offers a comprehensive study of literary responses to the topic Through reference to over 600 novels and short stories Andrew Hammond analyses the wide ranging engagement of post 1945 novelists with the ideologies processes and effects of territorialisation as well as the related issues of military conflict migration populism nationalism and regionalism Among the topics under study are the ideological divisions of the Cold War the closed societies of totalitarian communism the labour migrations of the 1950s and 1960s the tightening of border controls from the 1970s the twenty first century war on migration the official restrictions on borderland communities the conflicts in Bosnia Georgia and Ukraine and the patterns of social segregation that have marked the continent from the Second World War to the present Drawing on theoretical work in the social sciences and the humanities this is a ground breaking contribution to European literary studies establishing the importance of continental border writing and opening up fresh avenues for decolonised teaching and research 1,000

Włodzimierz Borodziej, Ferenc Laczó, Joachim von Puttkamer, 2020-08-02 Intellectual Horizons offers a pioneering transnational and comparative treatment of key thematic areas in the intellectual and cultural history of Central and Eastern Europe in the twentieth century For most of the twentieth century Central and Eastern European ideas and cultures constituted an integral part of wider European trends However the intellectual and cultural history of this diverse region has rarely been incorporated sufficiently into nominally comprehensive histories of Europe This volume redresses this underrepresentation and provides a more balanced perspective on the recent past of the continent through original critical overviews of themes ranging from the social and conceptual history of intellectuals and histories of political thought and historiography to literary visual and religious cultures to perceptions and representations of the region in the twentieth century While structured thematically individual contributions are organized chronologically They emphasize where relevant generational experiences agendas and accomplishments while taking into account the sharp ruptures that characterize the period The third in a four volume set on Central and Eastern Europe in the twentieth century it is the go to resource for understanding the intellectual and cultural history of this dynamic region

My Country Is Literature Chandrahas Choudhury, 2021-11-30 A book is only one text but it is many books It is a different book for each of its readers My Anna Karenina is not your Anna Karenina your A House for Mr Biswas is not the one on my shelf When we think of a favourite book we recall not only the shape of the story the characters who touched our hearts the rhythm and texture of the sentences We recall our own circumstances when we read it where we bought it and for how much what kind of joy or solace it provided how scenes from the story began to intermingle with scenes from our life how it roused us to anger or indignation or allowed us to make our peace with some great private discord This is the second life of the book its life in our life In his early twenties the novelist Chandrahas Choudhury found himself in the position of most young people who want to write impractical hard up ill at ease in the world Like most people who love to read his most radiant hours were inside the pages of a book Seeking to combine his love of writing with his love of reading he became an adept of a trade that is mainly transacted lying down that is he became a book reviewer Pleasure independence aesthetic rapture even a modest livelihood all these were the rewards of being a worker bee of literature ingesting the output of the publishers of the world in great quantities and trying to explain in the pages of newspapers and magazines exactly what makes a book leave a mark on the soul Even as Choudhury's own novels began to be published he continued to write about other writers books his contemporaries at home and abroad the great Indian writers of the past the relationship of the reading life in particular the novel to selfhood and democracy all the ways in which literature sings the truths of the human heart My Country Is Literature brings together the best of his literary criticism a long train of perceptive essays on writers as diverse as VS Naipaul and Orhan Pamuk Gandhi and Nehru Bibhutibhushan Bandyopadhyay and Jhumpa Lahiri The book also contains an introductory essay describing Choudhury's book saturated years as a young writer in Mumbai the joys and sorrows and stratagems of the book reviewer's trade and the ways in which literature is made as much by readers as by writers Delightfully punctuated with 15 portraits of writers by the artist Golak Khandual My Country Is Literature is essential reading for everyone who believes that books are the most beautiful things in life

Herta and Paul Amirian Award Bettina Brandt, Valentina Glajar, 2013-11-01 Two languages German and Romanian inform the novels essays and collage poetry of Nobel laureate Herta and Paul Amirian Describing her writing as autofictional Amirian depicts the effects of violence cruelty and terror on her characters based on her own experiences in Communist Romania under the repressive Nicolae Ceaușescu regime Herta and Paul Amirian Politics and Aesthetics explores Amirian's writings from different literary cultural and historical perspectives Part 1 features Amirian's Nobel lecture five new collage poems and an interview with Ernest Wichner a German Romanian author who has traveled with her and sheds light on her writing Parts 2 and 3

featuring essays by scholars from across Europe and the United States address the political and poetical aspects of M ller s texts Contributors discuss life under the Romanian Communist dictatorship while also stressing key elements of M ller s poetics which promises both self conscious formal experimentation and political intervention One of the first books in English to thoroughly examine M ller s writing this volume addresses audiences with an interest in dissident exile migration experimental and transnational literature

The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond, 2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels

Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions

Transnationalism and German-Language Literature in the Twenty-First Century Stuart Taberner, 2017-03-01 This book examines how German language authors have intervened in contemporary debates on the obligation to extend hospitality to asylum seekers refugees and migrants the terrorist threat post 9 11 globalisation and neo liberalism the opportunities and anxieties of intensified mobility across borders and whether transnationalism necessarily implies the end of the nation state and the dawn of a new cosmopolitanism The book proceeds through a series of close readings of key texts of the last twenty years with an emphasis on the most recent works Authors include Ter zia Mora Richard Wagner Olga Grjasnowa Marlene Streeruwitz Vladimir Vertlib Navid Kermani Felicitas Hoppe Daniel Kehlmann Ilija Trojanow Christian

Kracht and Christa Wolf representing the diversity of contemporary German language writing Through a careful process of juxtaposition and differentiation the individual chapters demonstrate that writers of both minority and nonminority backgrounds address transnationalism in ways that certainly vary but which also often overlap in surprising ways Herta Müller Brigid Haines, Lyn Marven, 2013-06-20 A critical companion to the works of Herta Müller winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2009 East and South Lucy Gasser, 2021-07-15 What is Europe in academic discourse While Europe tends to be used as shorthand often interchangeable with the West neither the West nor Europe are homogeneous spaces Though postcolonial studies have long been debunking Eurocentrism in its multiple guises there is still work to do in fully comprehending how its imaginations and discursive legacies conceive the figure of Europe as not all who live on European soil are understood as equally European This volume explores this immediate need to rethink the axis of postcolonial cultural productions to disarticulate Eurocentrism to recognise Europe as a more diverse plural and fluid space to draw forward cultural exchanges and dialogues within the Global South Through analyses of literary texts from East Central Europe and beyond this volume sheds light on alternative literary cartographies the multiplicity of Europes and being European which exist both as they are viewed from the different geographies of the global South and within the continent itself Covering a wide spatial and temporal terrain in postcolonial and European cultural productions this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature and literary criticism cultural studies post colonial studies global South studies and European studies Episodes from a History of Undoing Reghina Dascal, 2011-12-14 Episodes from a History of Undoing The Heritage of Female Subversiveness paraphrasing Rada Khumar's seminal study of the development of the feminist movements in India The History of Doing is a volume purporting to illustrate women's resistance to patriarchal colonization through societal norms and hegemonic discourses Whether mythical amazons mediaeval authors or regular cannonesses Renaissance monarchs activists and academics philosophers or politicians such women have become trail blazers in their fields attempting to forge new epistemes through strategies of undoing refashioning rewriting or revising political and cultural concepts practices and institutions The volume comprises 11 essays authored by academics from Brazil Hungary Poland Romania Turkey and the USA and addresses a wide readership of academics students historians NGO activists etc The volume is prefaced by Professor Margaret R Higsonnet from Connecticut University
