Where to Watch Birds in World Cities Paul Milne,2006 An indispensable book for traveling bird enthusiasts who find themselves in a foreign city with a little free time This is the first birder s guide to sixty cities of the world Designed and written for the bird enthusiast who is traveling for reasons other than birding on business with family for academic conferences the book offers assistance in locating birds identifying local bird residents and using public transportation

Where to Watch Birds in World Cities deserves a permanent place in the suitcase or briefcase of anyone who would like to make the most of limited time in an unfamiliar city by learning about the local birds. Entries for each of the sixty cities provide an introduction to the city and detailed information on major bird watching sites including lists of typical summer and winter bird residents and migrants and directions for getting to the sites using public transportation. The book is illustrated throughout with maps and attractive line drawings. In no way a replacement for detailed guides to specific cities or regions, this book instead fills an important gap for travelers whose birding though done on short notice can nevertheless prove delightful. Some cities included in this guide: Milan, Toronto, Mexico City, Tokyo, Los Angeles, Taipei, Lima, Singapore, Kampala, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Dublin, Copenhagen, Seattle, Chicago, San Francisco, Caracas, Rome, Cape Town, Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Aires, Paris, Boston, New York, Berlin, New Delhi, Zurich, Amsterdam, Nairobi, Warsaw. A. C. Black, Woodpeckers of Europe, Gerard Gorman, 2004. Gives an account of the European Picidae through the author's lifetime study of these birds. This book covers the various aspects of the natural history of the ten species including evolution, taxonomy, topography, flight patterns and drumming. It also deals with their country status, forestry and their relationship with man and other fauna. Birds, 2004. Tales from Concrete Jungles, David Lindo, 2015-06-18. A collection of articles celebrating David Lindo's short birding trips to many cities in Britain and around the world. Born and raised in London, David Lindo's passionate interest in the natural world, especially birds, began at an early age. His thriving curiosity opened a door for him into an unexplored world of urban birding. Years later he decided to champion the delights of birding in cities and reinvented himself as the Urban Birder. Using this illustrious alias, David Lindo has brought urban birding back into the public consciousness, promoting its virtues at every opportunity and writing about it in the birding press. He urges people to look up when walking around in cities or to stop and close your eyes in a busy street just to listen to the birds that may be singing. In his second book, David visits some of the world's most unnatural environments, revealing the astonishingly diverse range of wildlife that can be found when you take the time to look. Much more than a compendium of birding sites, each tale follows the Urban Birder in his enthralling pursuit of city birding. Accompanied by dedicated local conservationists and renowned birders, David gives a deeper insight into the true nature of each city. Featuring 70 locations to explore, Tales from Concrete Jungles is the perfect book to dip in to when on the move or to hide away with on a rainy afternoon. Join David in his celebration of nature, pick up travel inspiration and immerse yourself in his captivating quest for urban birding. World Birdwatch, 2004. Central and Eastern European Wildlife, Gerard Gorman, 2008-09-24. This new visitor's guide provides a colorful introduction to the mammals, birds, reptiles, butterflies and other wildlife for which the area is renowned, together with an insight into their habits and habitats.
