Do Yourself a Favor Michelle L. Levigne, 2019-03-15 Like the Pirates Code many alleged rules of writing are more like guidelines But don t believe anyone who insists there are NO rules for writing There are rules the mechanics The craft as opposed to the art The tools for sculpting clay or stone or spinning and dyeing thread for weaving or learning to play scales and read music and keep your instrument in tune when creating music The rest the art portion is flexible and adapts to what works best for YOU the writer The technique for playing the instrument the point of view and voice for the story the genre you write in the images you create from stone and clay the pattern of the cloth you weave and the colors you choose to use When you understand the why of the rules then you can bend or break them So Do Yourself A Favor and learn what s hard and fast and what is flexible It ll save you pain and effort and wasted time in the long run This collection of advice started as blog postings read semi rants while editing people who had something to say but didn t take the time to figure out how to say it Basically whenever I ran into something noteworthy in my own writing journey or things I encountered too often in editing I blogged about it hoping the things that frustrated or fascinated me would be helpful to others Along with those blog posts revised because of timeliness or to cover a broader subject or to fit in new discoveries along the way or because I repeated myself I offer bits of advice about topics that other authors have found worthy of discussion Or argument Or mockery Or complaint Or wailing Or amusement of the I m losing my mind variety
