Shokane, Jabulani C. Makhubele, Lisa V. Blitz, 2018-12-01 Issues Around Aligning Theory Research and Practice in Social Work Education provides a reflection on social work education with a slant towards an Afrocentric approach aiming to facilitate strong reflective thinking and to address local realities about social work education on the African continent as well as in broader global contexts This volume focuses on issues around aligning theory research and practice in social work education A significant contribution is made here to the scholarly understanding of opportunities to sustain the academic discourse on social work education Social work as a profession and a social science discipline is dynamic and it ought to meet the challenges of the realities of the societies in which it serves given the history of the changing society of South Africa from apartheid to democracy Over the years social work education and training has undergone tremendous curricular changes with the enactment of the White Paper for Social Welfare and the national review respectively by the South African Council for Social Services Professions SACSSP and the Council on Higher Education CHE for the re accreditation of all Bachelor of Social Work BSW programmes in South Africa fulfilling the prescripts of the Higher Education Act No 101 of 1997 as amended and Social Service Professions Act No 110 of 1978 It is worth mentioning that the curricular changes will also continue with the current reviewing of Social Service Professions Act No 110 of 1978 as amended which is underway in South Africa This book is really ground breaking The Afrocentric perspective on social work practice contributes to the current discourse on decolonisation of social work teaching and practice From a methodological perspective the book is premised on multi inter and trans disciplining in social sciences It covers aspects of social work education and practice through research narrative qualitative African methodology secondary data analysis etc engendering values and ethics report writing supervision in fieldwork as well as exchange programmes and international service learning addressing a number of concepts such as cultural competency cultural awareness and sensitivity are addressed Global Dynamics in Travel, Tourism, and Hospitality Pappas, Nikolaos, Bregoli, Ilenia, 2016-06-16 Worldwide tourism is the third largest economic activity in direct earnings after petroleum and automobile industries and by far the largest one if indirect earnings are also taken into consideration Taking into account the profound economic impact the tourism and hospitality industries can have on regions and cities around the world further research in this area is critical Global Dynamics in Travel Tourism and Hospitality takes a holistic approach to tourism and hospitality operations education and research Highlighting the latest research in the field real world examples of how these industries are shaping economic development as well as future outlooks and opportunities for growth this publication is an essential reference source for researchers professionals and graduate level students International Environmental Governance Niko Urho, Maria Ivanova, Anna Dubrova, Natalia Escobar-Pemberthy, 2019-02-20 A plethora of environmental problems are ravaging the planet and its inhabitants How well do existing structures convene governments to address these challenges What is the role of science and civil society in this context And does international cooperation properly support countries with limited capacities This report seeks to respond to these questions based on an analysis of actions taken to renew international environmental governance to fulfill commitments made at the UN Conference on Sustainable Development Rio 20 in 2012 This report outlines possibilities to strengthen the UN Environment Programme and to enhance synergies among global environmental conventions to ensure that international environmental governance continues evolving and improving to secure human well being and planetary health Técnicas de investigación social y educativa Fàbregues Feijóo, Sergi, Meneses Naranjo, Julio, Rodríguez Gómez, David, Paré, Marie-Hélène, 2016-11-09 Este libro introduce al lector a cuatro técnicas de recogida de datos a menudo

utilizadas en la investigación social y educativa el cuestionario la entrevista el grupo de discusión y la observación participante En el ciclo de la investigación estas técnicas son implementadas con el fin de aglutinar un conjunto de evidencias que una vez analizadas permitan dar respuesta a preguntas de investigación de tipo cuantitativo y cualitativo La naturaleza de la información generada es un aspecto central en el momento de decidir la técnica que guiar la recogida de datos Cada técnica produce un tipo de información diferente y en consecuencia da acceso a dimensiones diferentes de los fenómenos sociales investigados Por esta razón además de ofrecer un marco de referencia para el diseño e implementación de cada técnica el libro pretende dotar al lector de las competencias necesarias para la evaluación de su pertinencia y adecuación a distintas situaciones de investigación

The role of evidence in developing effective educational inclusion Joseph Mintz, Brahm Norwich, 2023-12-13 There has been considerable interest internationally in how research can be effectively translated to have an impact on practice in schools The application of evidence informed approaches in the field of education is contested and debated Such debates are intensified in relation to the issue of how best to include children with diverse learning needs in the classroom The role of knowledge science and evidence in how we both conceptualize and best support children with special educational needs and other forms of diversity in the classroom remains an open question in terms of both policy and practice Although there is a considerable and growing body of literature on evidence informed practice in education in general there has been less attention paid to its implications for the domain of educational inclusion specifically However tensions between differing conceptualisations of difference and the role of categorisation present questions as yet not fully answered as to the ways in which evidence can and should articulate with practice in this specific domain For example issues of what is inclusion the place of norms and values that define inclusion how we conceptualize and think about difference across culture language and cognition are raised when we think about the application of evidence to practice in the area of educational inclusion
