Text Structure

Science Project

After a project that humiliated her last year, she was determined to succeed this year. She was not working, creating an orange glow over the next month. Lauren had collected materials and had them ready. "Come, I need your help. My science project—the one that humiliated me last year—is going to make my little brother, Casey, feel something good."

She decided to do a project about the earth. She showed all the data, looking worried. Together, they followed their brother around the house. First, they found a host of other data leading to the backyard. Next, Casey's brother was asked to go to a broken machine in the garage. Then, a series of really complicated to the machine.

While they found Casey looking like a winner. "It was going to explode when I stepped!" Casey admitted, his hands covered in soot and orange paint. Lauren smiled at him and began gathering the materials to build.

Working together, she and Casey completed the project just in time for Lauren to present her presentation.
