It produced one of the most utopian statements about adult education and learning of the past 25 years: the Hamburg Declaration on Adult Learning and Agenda for the Future. Adult education was declared key to the twenty-first century in order to build a world in which violent conflict is replaced by dialogue, a culture of peace based on justice and the creation of a learning society committed to social justice and general well-being. However, the Declaration also recognized that there were many practical challenges to its implementation as profound changes were occurring in social, economic, environmental and political spheres. In this volume, North American and international scholars critically assess how far the visionary statements of the Hamburg Declaration have been advanced and implemented. They review the recent development of the 10 themes of the Agenda for the Future, explore their local and global achievements through considering the results of the 2009 CONFINTEA VI conference and other related policy developments. Outline what is still necessary to realize the Declaration's goals. This is 138th volume of this quarterly report series. Noted for its depth of coverage, it explores issues of common interest to instructors, administrators, counselors and policymakers in a broad range of adult and continuing education settings such as colleges and universities, extension programs, businesses, libraries and museums Annual Review of Comparative and International Education 2020 Alexander W. Wiseman, 2021-08-02 The Annual Review of Comparative and International Education covers significant developments in the field of comparative and international education. This 2020 edition begins with a collection of discussion essays about comparative education trends and directions written by both professional and scholarly leaders Advancing the Global Agenda for Human Rights, Vulnerable Populations, and Environmental Sustainability Mary V. Alfred, Petra A. Robinson, Elizabeth A. Roumell, 2021-10-01 For over 70 years the United Nations has worked to advance human conditions globally through its historic agenda for a more peaceful, prosperous and just world. Through the work of the General Assembly and other programs like the UNESCO World Conferences on Adult Education, the organization has taken a leading role in bringing world leaders together to dialogue on world issues and to set agendas for advancing social and economic justice among and within the regions of the world. The underlying themes of the United Nations agenda over the years have been world peace, economic justice, addressing the needs of the world's most vulnerable populations and protecting the environment. We draw from the two last two declarations from which the Millennium Development Goals September 2000 and the Sustainable Development Goals September 2015 were adopted by world leaders with a focus on addressing the needs of the most vulnerable populations In this declaration world leaders committed to uphold the long standing principles of the organization and to combat extreme poverty hunger disease illiteracy environmental degradation and discrimination and violence against women The overall objective of the book is to highlight the conditions of vulnerable populations from various contexts globally and the role adult and higher education can play and is playing in advancing the United Nations agenda of social and economic justice and environmental sustainability Adult education through research teaching and service engagements is contributing to this ongoing effort but as many scholars have noted our work remains invisible and undocumented Therefore this book highlights adult education s critical partnership in addressing these global issues It will also begin to fill the void that exists in adult education literature on internationalization of the field Annual Report Unesco Institute for Lifelong Learning,2006
