Un Peu Plus Loin Sur La Droite Fred Vargas:

Un peu plus loin sur la droite Fred Vargas, 1996 Analyse Roman policier nigme French Crime Fiction, 1945-2005 Margaret-Anne Hutton, 2016-04-22 In the first major study of representations of World War II in French crime fiction Margaret Anne Hutton draws on a corpus of over a hundred and fifty texts spanning more than sixty years Included are well known writers male and female such as Aubert Simenon Boileau Narcejak Vargas Daeninckx and Jonquet as well as a broad range of lesser known authors Hutton s introduction situates her study within the larger framework of literary representations of World War II setting the stage for her discussions of genre the problem of defining crimes and criminals in the context of the war the epistemological issues that arise in the relationship between World War II historiography and the crime novel and the temporal textures linking past crimes to the present Filling a gap in the fields of crime fiction and fictional representations of the War Hutton s book calls into question the way both crime fiction and the French theatre of World War II have been conceptualized and codified Fred Vargas Coffret en 3 volumes : Debout les morts ; Un peu plus loin sur la Fred Vargas, 2007-11-19 Fred Vargas Coffret en 3 volumes : Debout les morts ; Un peu plus loin sur la Fred Vargas, 2003-10-29 The Pleasures of Crime David Platten, 2011-12 For 150 years the French public and literati have enjoyed a love affair with crime fiction This book investigates the nature of this relationship and how through periods of dramatic social and political change in France it has flourished It challenges the conventional view of a popular genre feeding a niche market depicting crime fiction instead as a field of creative endeavour which has gradually matured into one of considerable literary fertility By inviting us to share secrets and crack codes creating suspense and at times not shirking from presenting horrific events in graphic language the crime story brings into play the intellect and emotions of its readership This book explores both this intrinsic literary value of the crime novel and its extrinsic witness to historical events and cultural trends arguing that these apparently distinct aspects are in fact dynamic interrelated parts of the same whole This blend of cultural history with literary analysis allows for the discussion of themes such as politics memory the urban environment and youth cultures mixed with case studies of major French crime writers including Gaston Leroux Georges Simenon Jean Patrick Manchette Daniel Pennac and Fred Vargas Fatal Fictions Alison L. LaCroix, Richard H. McAdams, Martha Craven Nussbaum, 2017 Writers of fiction have always confronted topics of crime and punishment This age old fascination with crime on the part of both authors and readers is not surprising given that criminal justice touches on so many political and psychological themes essential to literature and comes equipped with a trial process that contains its own dramatic structure This volume explores this profound and enduring literary engagement with crime investigation and criminal justice The collected essays explore three themes that connect the world of law with that of fiction First defining and punishing crime is one of the fundamental purposes of government along with the protection of victims by the prevention of crime And yet criminal punishment remains one of the most abused and terrifying forms of political power Second crime is intensely psychological and therefore an important subject by which a writer can develop and explore character. A third connection between criminal justice and fiction involves the inherently dramatic nature of the legal system itself, particularly the trial. Moreover, the ongoing public conversation about crime and punishment suggests that the time is ripe for collaboration between law and literature in this troubled domain. The essays in this collection span a wide array of genres including tragic drama, science fiction, lyric poetry, autobiography, and mystery novels. The works discussed include works as old as fifth century BCE Greek tragedy and as recent as contemporary novels, memoirs, and mystery novels. The cumulative result is arresting: there are killer wives and crimes against trees, a government bureaucrat who sends political adversaries to their death for treason before falling to the same fate himself, a convicted murderer who doesn't die when hanged, a psychopathological collector whose quite sane kidnapping victim nevertheless also collects Justice Thomas, reading and misreading of Bigger Thomas, a man who forgives his son's murderer and one who cannot forgive his wife's non-existent adultery, fictional detectives who draw on historical analysis to solve murders. These essays begin a conversation and they illustrate the great depth and power of crime in literature.

Nomadismes des romancières contemporaines de langue française Audrey Lasserre, Anne Simon, 2008. On taxe souvent les romancières contemporaines de langue française d'intimisme de culture narrative sur la sphère du privé et du corporel ou encore de focalisation sur l'affect, le familial et le psychique. Pourtant que ce soit d'un point de vue textuel, générique social ou politique, cette réduction de la littérature contemporaine féminine à l'auto-enfermement ne rend pas compte d'un champ créatif beaucoup plus complexe. De fait, les reformulations du genre romanesque et le travail sur la langue fluidifient les frontières symboliques traditionnelles tandis que les déclassements par le haut ou le bas, les métissages identitaires et les traverses d'espaces géographiques corporels ou politiques indexent un nomadisme généralisé. Enfin, les tentatives de reconfigurations de pratiques littéraires et critiques successivement focalisées sur les productions masculines ou franco-françaises signalent un questionnement des enjeux de pouvoir. Pour mettre au jour l'ensemble de ces déplacements, quatre crivaines ont proposé des inédits sur leur conception personnelle du nomadisme littéraire.

Régine Detambel, Annie Ernaux, Pierrette Fleutiaux et V nus Khoury Ghata Women Do Genre in Film and Television Mary Harrod, Katarzyna Paszkiewicz, 2017-10-30. Winner of first Prize in the BAFTSS Best Edited Collection competition, this volume examines how different generations of women work within the genericity of audio-visual storytelling, not necessarily to undo or subvert popular formats but also to draw on their generative force. Recent examples of filmmakers and creative practitioners within and outside Hollywood as well as women working in non-directing authorial roles remind us that women are in various ways authoring commercially and culturally impactful texts across a range of genres. Put simply, this volume asks what do women who are creatively engaged with audio-visual industries do with genre and what does genre do with them. The contributors to the collection respond to this question from diverse perspectives and with different answers, spanning issues of direction, screenwriting, performance, and audience address/reception.

Frauenkrimi/polar Féminin Nicola Barfoot, 2007 Can female authored French and German crime novels be read as part of an international phenomenon of feminist revisions of the crime genre This book examines the status of female crime writers and their female investigators in France and Germany focusing on four novels of the 1990s and their reception In Germany the rise of the Frauenkrimi has been accompanied by fears of ghettoization on the part of women writers and hostile reactions from critics to perceived feminist ideology while in France the encroachment of women on the masculine terrain of the roman noir has given rise to retrenchments and defensive redefinitions Far from being a simple source of pleasure female authored crime novels in France and Germany are a site of conflict this study exposes the terms of this conflict and demonstrates the continued centrality of gender issues in literary studies
