Focusing on some of the best known and most visible stage plays and dance performances of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Penny Farfan's interdisciplinary study demonstrates that queer performance was integral to and productive of modernism that queer modernist performance played a key role in the historical emergence of modern sexual identities and that it anticipated and was in a sense foundational to the insights of contemporary queer modernist studies Chapters on works from Vaslav Nijinsky's Afternoon of a Faun to Noël Coward's Private Lives highlight manifestations of and suggest ways of reading queer modernist performance Together these case studies clarify aspects of both the queer and the modernist and how their co-productive intersection was articulated in and through performance on the late nineteenth and early twentieth century stage Performing Queer Modernism thus contributes to an expanded understanding of modernism across a range of performance genres the central role of performance within modernism more generally and the integral relation between performance history and the history of sexuality It also contributes to the ongoing transformation of the field of modernist studies in which drama and performance remain underrepresented and to revisionist historiographies that approach modernist performance through feminist and queer critical perspectives and interdisciplinary frameworks and that consider how formally innovative as well as more conventional works collectively engaged with modernity at once reflecting and contributing to historical change in the domains of gender and sexuality The Noël Coward Reader Noël

Coward, 2011-09-06 The Noël Coward Reader offers a wonderfully wide ranging selection the first of its kind of the best of the Master's oeuvre entertainingly annotated and abundantly illustrated and including material that has never before been published Here are scenes from Coward s famous plays from Private Lives to Blithe Spirit and his screenplays from Brief Encounter to In Which We Serve Here are four of his best short stories scenes from his only novel and a generous selection of his verse alongside the lyrics of many of his most sublime songs including Mad Dogs and Englishmen The Stately Homes of England and Mad About the Boy The Noël Coward Reader is a must have book both for those who adore his work and for those who are just discovering the many faceted delights of his comic genius From a Far Distant Time & Place Thomas Peter Glass,2005-11-01 This book is the genealogical history of the ancestry of Jacob Stephen Gruben and Maria Emilie Krmer who came to the United States from Germany in the early 1880 s The book traces each of their ancestries back through German civil registration records and the earlier Catholic Church records to the 17th century The book includes information about the first generation born in the United States Similarly the book traces the family of Johann Gottfried Godfrey Nienhaus a nephew of Jacob Stephen Gruben who also came to the United States at about the same time The book contains information on the first generation of the Nienhaus family that was born in the United States The book is of wider interest because there is a discussion of the nature of and idiosyncrasies of the German civil registration and Catholic records available in the Dsseldorf Cologne area of Germany There is an extensive discussion of a method of determining a family line when faced with the sometimes scant information available in the early Catholic Church records There are large numbers of collateral relatives listed in the lines of descendants contained in the book with over 1800 people listed most of whom were born lived and died in the Dsseldorf Cologne area of Germany There is a surname index to the lines of descendants in the Gruben section and a surname index to the lines of descendants in the Krmer section of the book
