| Why is it important to fulfill our obligations of citizenship?                 | When citizens meet their obligations to the government, they are making the United States a safer and better place to live. By following the law and not committing crimes, communities are less dangerous places. By paying taxes, citizens are making sure that the government can afford to provide services that benefit the general public. By defending the rights of others in the courtroom, citizens are making sure that those rights stay in the United States and aren't taken from someone who needs them. By serving on juries, citizens are making sure that the right to a fair trial stays protected. |
| Why is it important for citizens to be in their governments to offer comments? | Continually corrects things the government does. It keeps the government better informed about what is going on in the community and makes sure things are done the right way.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
