Dear Editor,

I boarded the bus at 8:00 p.m. There were already about 16 passengers inside the bus. The driver closed the doors, switched off the air conditioner and went off to talk to someone outside the bus. I knocked on the door to ask the driver to switch on the air conditioner. The driver came over, opened the door and angrily shouted at me to get out. He also ordered all the other passengers to get out.

Is this the way to treat the public?

medium Through analysis of legislation and policy documents interviews with lawyers law students and law lecturers and observations of court proceedings and law lectures the book reflects on what is entailed in changing the language of the law It reviews the implications of societal bilingualism for postcolonial justice systems and raises an important question for language planners to consider if the language of the law is changed what else about the law changes Taylor's 7th Teaching and Learning Conference 2014 Proceedings Siew Fun Tang, Loshinikarasi Logonnathan, 2015-06-01 These conference proceedings showcase a rich and practical exchange of approaches and vital evidence based practices taking place around the world They clarify the complex challenges involved in bringing about a holistic educational environment in schools and institutes of higher learning that fosters greater understanding and offer valuable insights on how to avoid the pitfalls that come with rolling out holistic approaches to education To do so the proceedings focus on the subthemes Support and Development Mobility and Diversity and Networking and Collaboration in Holistic Education Insights from Emergent Education Systems in Selected Countries Jose A. Fadul, 2011 Educational Issues in Multiethnic Malaysia Tan Yao Sua, R. Santhiram, Education in multiethnic societies is a subject of considerable debates in almost all parts of the world These debates have invoked strongly felt positions between competing ethnic groups over a host of issues that have a profound impact on the nation building process Apart from deep seated issues arising from contrasting internal demands over educational rights and equality emerging issues arising from external influences such as the global spread of English as a result of globalisation have also impacted the nation building process of multiethnic societies It is against this context that educational issues in multiethnic societies merit our attention In the case of Malaysia discourses over these issues are particularly intense and hotly contested by the different ethnic groups This is primarily because of the extreme difficulties in mediating these complicated issues which are impinged by competing socio cultural economic and political interests This book explores the contested terrains of education in multiethnic Malaysia It comprises seven chapters that cover three crucial areas of educational provisions and delivery namely education of ethnic minorities education and national integration and educational language policy These three crucial areas are often the prime concerns of policy makers in multiethnic societies who have to tread a thin line in resolving these issues which are underpinned by intense coterminous interests and inter ethnic competition and having the potential to generate conflicts contestation and power struggle As far as the Malaysian policy makers are concerned their efforts in resolving these issues have not been overly successful It is most unfortunate that their policy decisions are at times influenced by competing political and ethnic interests rather than guided by sound theoretical underpinnings that could put the educational development of the country on a stronger platform and a clearer trajectory COMMON ERRORS ENGLISH (PAPER 1) SPM, 2015 Malaysia Knowledge Based Economy Master Plans and Programs Handbook - Strategic Information and Programs IBP, Inc., 2014-10-26 2011 Updated Reprint Updated Annually Malaysia Knowledge Based Economy Master Plan Handbook English in Southeast Asia David Prescott, 2009-05-05 This book represents a new publishing venture in terms of its range of concerns with regard to English in Southeast Asia. The chapters in the volume reflect the interests and themes of the annual Conferences on English in Southeast Asia held since 1996 among participating universities from nine countries: Malaysia, Singapore, Brunei, Philippines, Australia, Hong Kong, Thailand, Indonesia, and New Zealand. This is believed to be the first time that such diversity and coverage has been published in a single volume. The three sections of the book cover topics which have been consistently discussed at the conferences during the last ten years. The Varieties section features chapters on phonology, dictionary making, syntax, code switching, and the communicative strategies of English speakers from ASEAN countries. The Literacies section focuses on ICT in English language teaching, Information literacy, bilingual and multilingual issues in Southeast Asia, recent developments in English language teaching and education in Thailand, and questions of heritage and identity with respect to English in Malaysia. In the Literatures section, the concerns are with new generation writings in English in Malaysia, the literature read by young Filipinos, the use of English in Malaysian newspapers in the context of general elections, the discourses of Asian English newspapers in relation to notions like globalisation and global English, and ASEAN English on Internet websites. As a collection of work by experienced academics engaged in the issues germane to the roles and status of English in Southeast Asia, this volume is an excellent resource for university students, university teaching and research staff, and university library collections.

Finding Malaysia Zairil Khir Johari, Some of the most engaging contemporary writing has seen the transformation of the political column into a literary art form, an important way of taking in the world and thinking deeply about it. In his first collection of essays, Zairil Khir Johari offers quick-witted and focused reflections on some of the most pressing and contentious issues of the day. At the heart of the matter is the bane of Malaysian politics: the ethnic question, from which he explores a range of high-profile issues: identity, secularism, federalism, the economy, good governance, and education. After sixty years of nationhood, Zairil finds much that is wrong with Malaysia. Its eccentricities are by no means benign. Yet these essays also offer answers to his own assertion that we need to move beyond this. At once both philosophical and practical, Finding Malaysia lays down a marker for any serious debate over the future trajectory of the country.
