This book examines the controversial aspects of RCTs in Education and sets out the potential and pitfalls of the method. Drawing on their own extensive experience of running RCTs and their work at the Centre for Evidence and Social Innovation (CESI) at Queen's University Belfast, the authors provide a thorough practical introduction to the use of randomised controlled trials in education. Using real data sets, chapters equip the reader with all of the key knowledge and skills required to design, run, analyse and report an RCT. Coverage includes: Step-by-step guidance on analysing data; How to assess the reliability and validity of results; Advice on balancing the demands of various stakeholders. Essential reading for postgraduate and more experienced researchers as well as teachers and educationalists seeking to increase their knowledge and understanding of the use of such methods in education. Origami 5 Patsy Wang-Iverson, 2016-04-19 Origami5 continues in the excellent tradition of its four previous incarnations, documenting work presented at an extraordinary series of meetings that explored the connections between origami, mathematics, science, technology, education and other academic fields. The fifth such meeting, 5OSME, July 13-17, 2010, Singapore Management University, followed.
