When my love swears that she is made of truth	A
I do believe her, though I know she lies,	B
That she might think me some untutor'd youth,	A
Unlearned in the world's false subtleties.	B
Thus vainly thinking that she thinks me young,	C
Although she knows my days are past the best,	D
Simply I credit her false speaking tongue:	C
On both sides thus is simple truth suppress'd.	D
But wherefore says she not she is unjust?	E
And wherefore say not I that I am old?	F
O, love's best habit is in seeming trust,	E
And age in love loves not to have years told:	F
Therefore I lie with her and she with me,	G
And in our faults by lies we flatter'd be.	G

A Test of Poetry Louis Zukofsky, 2025-05-01 A Test of Poetry 1932 is a comparative study of poetry from Homer to the twentieth century By giving several translations of the same passage from Homer an elegy of Ovid and lines from Herrick which read like an adaptation of Ovid or a fifteenth century poem about a cock and a recent poem about chickens and so on a means for judging the values of poetic writing is established The book also has a comparative chronological chart including a summary of critical views Shakespeare's Global Sonnets Jane Kingsley-Smith, W. Reginald Rampone Jr., 2023-02-22 This edited collection brings together scholars from across the world including France Italy Germany Hungary Japan the USA and India to offer a truly international perspective on the global reception of Shakespeare's Sonnets from the 18th century to the present Global Shakespeare has never been so local and familiar as it is today The translation appropriation and teaching of Shakespeare's plays across the world have been the subject of much important recent work in Shakespeare studies as have the ethics of Shakespeare's globalization Within this discussion however the Sonnets are often overlooked This book offers a new global history of the Sonnets including the first substantial study of their translation and of their performance in theatre music and film It will appeal to anyone interested in the reception of the Sonnets and of Shakespeare across the world
