Tailings A Memoir:

Tailings Kaethe Schwehn, 2014-10-08 In August of 2001 Kaethe Schwehn needed her own personal Eden She was a twenty two year old trying to come to terms with a failed romance the dissolution of her parents marriage and her own floundering faith At first Holden Village a Lutheran retreat center nestled in the Cascade Mountains seemed like a utopian locale communal meals consensus decision making and eco friendly practices But as the months wore on the idyll faded and Kaethe was left with 354 inches of snow one prowling cougar sixty five disgruntled villagers and a pile of copper mine tailings 150 feet high Her Eden was a toxic Superfund site How do we navigate the space between who we are and who we would like to become between the world as it is and world as we imagine it could be Tailings is a lyrical memoir of intentional community told from the front lines a passionate and awkward journey about embracing the in between times of our lives with grace and hope

Radical Lutherans/Lutheran Radicals Jason A. Mahn, 2017-06-09 Can a Lutheran be sociopolitically radical Can a radical be theologically and faithfully Lutheran This book answers yes Written by teacher scholars from five ELCA colleges Radical Lutherans Lutheran Radicals follows Martin Luther Soren Kierkegaard Dietrich Bonhoeffer Dorothee Soelle and others as they sink deep roots in the Lutheran Christian tradition while simultaneously resisting the status quo with their words their deeds and sometimes their very lives Each chapter shows how the Lutheran theologian returns to the roots of Luther s life and writing and puts them toward radical social and political ends including critiques of cultured Christianity resistance to state or market preferential options for the poor and suffering deep commitments to peace justice and ecological sustainability and direct nonviolent resistance The book highlights theological themes popularized by Luther justification by grace two kingdoms thinking theology of the cross and vocation and then shows how these theological staples when deeply and creatively retrieved can inform political protest intentional living and other countercultural movements The compelling claim throughout is that Luther s theology at its root has resources for radical political participation and social transformation as exemplified by the writings and lives of these radical Lutherans Lutheran radicals

The Rending and the Nest Kaethe Schwehn, 2018-02-20 A chilling yet redemptive post apocalyptic debut that examines community motherhood faith and the importance of telling one s own story When 95 percent of the earth s population disappears for no apparent reason Mira does what she can to create some semblance of a life She cobbles together a haphazard community named Zion scavenges the Piles for supplies they might need and avoids loving anyone she can t afford to lose She has everything under control Almost Four years after the Rending Mira s best friend Lana announces her pregnancy the first since everything changed and a new source of hope for Mira But when Lana gives birth to an inanimate object and other women of Zion follow suit the thin veil of normalcy Mira has thrown over her new life begins to fray As the Zionites wrestle with the presence of these Babies a confident outsider named Michael appears proselytizing about the world beyond Zion He lures Lana away and when she doesn t return Mira must decide how much she s willing to let go in order to save her friend her home and her own fraught pregnancy Like California by Edan Lepucki and Station Eleven by Emily St John Mandel The Rending and the Nest uses a fantastical post apocalyptic landscape to ask decidedly human questions How well do we know the people we love What sustains us in the midst of suffering How do we forgive the brokenness we find within others and within ourselves Geological Memoirs New Zealand Geological Survey,1928
