News Framing through English-Chinese Translation Nancy Liu,2018-11-14 News Framing Through English Chinese Translation provides a useful tool to depict how Chinese news translation can be examined in the era of globalization The author has integrated framing theory in journalism studies with translation studies and developed a new theoretical model framework named Transframing This interdisciplinary model is pioneering and will make theoretical and conceptual contributions to translation studies This book aims to reveal ideological sociocultural and linguistic factors creating media discourse by examining Chinese media discourse in comparison to its counterpart in English Through the analysis of both quantitative and qualitative methods it is concluded that the transframing model can be applied to interpreting describing explaining as well as predicting the practice of news translation

The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1870 Called to Discipleship Dănuț Jemna,2023-08-31 Drawing on Jesus s example in the Gospel of Mark this book offers an in depth exploration of the nature of discipleship A tool to help readers draw close to Jesus it presents discipleship as a way of life centred on the journey back to God a journey that integrates the quest for salvation wholeness and human fulfilment Ultimately the invitation to discipleship is an invitation to live in obedience to God and commitment to our fellow human beings as Christ calls his followers not only to their own transformation but to participate in the transformation of others At a time when secular culture is rediscovering the benefits of discipleship this book invites readers into a powerful experience of identity formation based on the values of Christ and his kingdom The Spectator ,1885 Official Gazette. English Edition Japan,1948 Feminist Translation Studies Olga Castro,Emek Ergun,2017-02-17 Feminist Translation Studies Local and Transnational Perspectives situates feminist translation as political activism Chapters highlight the multiple agendas and visions of feminist translation and the different political voices and cultural heritages through which it speaks across times and places addressing the question of how both literary and nonliterary discourses migrate and contribute to local and transnational processes of feminist knowledge building and political activism This collection does not pursue a narrow fixed definition of feminism that is based solely on Eurocentric or West centric gender politics rather Feminist Translation Studies Local and Transnational Perspectives seeks to expand our understanding of feminist action not only to include feminist translation as resistance against multiple forms of domination but also to rethink feminist translation through feminist theories and practices developed in different geohistorical and disciplinary contexts In so doing the collection expands the geopolitical sociocultural and historical scope of the field from different disciplinary perspectives pointing towards a more transnational interdisciplinary and overtly political conceptualization of translation studies The London Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc ,1835 Remarks on the Revised English Version of the Greek New Testament Benjamin Wills Newton,1881
