Newspaper, 1926 The Current Index, 1913 Palmer's Index to "The Times" Newspaper, 1876 Yojana December 2021 (English) Publications Division, is a monthly journal devoted to the socio economic issues It started its publication in 1957 with Mr Khuswant Singh as the Chief Editor The magazine is now published in 13 languages viz English Hindi Urdu Punjabi Marathi Gujarati Bengali Assamese Telugu Tamil Kannada Malayalam and Odia Fourth Estate, 1907 The News Event Francis Cody, 2023-04-05 In the hypermediated world of Tamil Nadu Francis Cody studies how news events are made Not merely the act of representing events with words or images a news event is the reciprocal relationship between the events being reported in the news and the event of the news coverage itself In The News Event Francis Cody focuses on how imaginaries of popular sovereignty have been remade through the production and experience of such events Political sovereignty is thoroughly mediated by the production of news and subjects invested in the idea of democracy are remarkably reflexive about the role of publicly circulating images and texts in the very constitution of their subjectivity The law comes to stand as both a limit and positive condition in this process of event making where acts of legal and extralegal repression of publication can also become the stuff of news about news makers When the subjects of news inhabit multiple participant roles in the unfolding of public events when the very technologies of recording and circulating events themselves become news the act of representing a political event becomes difficult to disentangle from that of participating in it This Cody argues is the crisis of contemporary news making the news can no longer claim exteriority to the world on which it reports

China in the Indian Ocean Region—India's Security Challenges (Reprint, 2024) Sidda Goud, 2023-03-21 Indian Ocean third largest Ocean in the world surpasses the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans Being world s most populated Region one third of the world s bulk cargo and two thirds of world s oil ship tankers passes through the Indian Ocean China s interests in the Indian Ocean Region can be traced and backed by early 60 s Ever since Beijing has been increasingly deepening its presence in the Indian Ocean Region for a variety of reasons such as oil trade and security etc Over 30 per cent of China s seaborne trade worth about 300 billion transits across Indian Ocean Region Sharing a quarter of the world s population China facing ever increasing demand for energy China has little choice but to look beyond its borders for its energy requirements Around 77 percent of its oil imports are sourced from West Asia and Africa and these are transporting through the Indian Ocean via Malacca Strait Thus China's dependency on Indian Ocean Region continues to grow for energy imports from Gulf and to import resources from Africa and trade with Europe With China steadily spreading its footprints in the IOR with increasing military presence and with rapidly growing its navy being equipped with warships destroyers and nuclear submarines through a strategy called String of Pearls which can encircle India in its convenient time in the near future So China has been emerging as biggest threat for India by analyzing its actions in the Indian Ocean Region and along with India China border from Easter Ladakh to Arunachal Pradesh as stand off continues since June 2020

Hrd Practices in Apsrtc Dr. Santosha Pavani Tammineni, 2016-06-28 A complete study on implementation of HRD practices in APSRTC at zonal level is rare in number In contrast to the earlier practices an attempt has been made by the researcher to trace out the impact of HRD practices on employees at zonal level and to investigate whether it is implemented in letter and spirit or not by reviewing operational performance of APSRTC and its financial function This work is not only an in depth study of HRD practices in APSRTC the study also presents an overview of the road transport sector in India With the advent of globalization transport sectors are confronted with challenges in improving productivity by successfully meeting the intense level of competition from its counterparts Business today is in a period of change and uncertainty The success will largely depend on how these challenges are matched with the utilization of human resources that is at our disposal It has been very unfortunate that the APSRTC has limited its human resource developmental practices for some cadres at apex level only without taking organizational climate of various zones into account while training their managerial personnel But the need of the hour is to put more emphasis on all the HRD practices at managerial level in the background of their level of climate The researcher looks at the problems of implementing HRD practices in the context of changing technological advancement and government policies

Human

Rights Journalism and its Nexus to Responsibility to Protect Senthan Selvarajah, 2020-11-12 This book takes a holistic approach by capturing the various perspectives and viewpoints concerning the theory and practice of Human Rights Journalism Firstly this book helps fill the epistemological vacuum present in Human Rights Journalism by proposing pragmatic objectivity within the critical constructivist epistemology Secondly it defines the Human Rights Journalism Responsibility to Protect nexus by identifying five key elements Thirdly it proposes a Human Rights Journalism Responsibility to Protect conceptual model which illustrates how an embedded human rights focussed media strategy can be designed Fourthly this book proposes two novel quantitative analysis tools called the Framing Matrix and the Multimodal Discourse Analysis Matrix that are equipped to deal with a big sample size over a long period of time These tools are used to examine the practice of Human Rights Journalism and the typology of news stories of distant sufferings Finally it provides a scientific explanation for those in search of the answer to why one of the worst humanitarian crises in the world which took place in Sri Lanka in 2009 did not create any global compassion or garner attention

Doing Business in Today's India Douglas Bullis, 1998-01-13 As the world business climate globalizes and national economies become closely interlinked India looms as the largest country in the world to embrace the market economy Bullis maintains that not only will India be changed by international market forces it will have a significant impact upon the world economy as it emerges as a mass consumer market and an extended low cost manufacturing center But India has problems that pose difficulties for offshore investors Only with a clear idea of Indian business thinking and the relationship of commerce to India s complex mix of traditional caste and religious practices can businesspeople from the West gain any real hope of success This work provides the sort of far reaching information and advice essential for international businesspeople and for researchers and scholars in the academic community who want to be a part of India s economic future Bullis asserts that Indian businesspeople are far more knowledgeable about international markets than most international businesspeople are about India Yet India s long period of socialist dormancy produced very different concepts of management employee relations the role of competition marketing finance and business government relations All these factors will play critical roles in the success or failure of investment plans formulated outside India s borders Moreover Indian people have a more diverse and compartmentalized culture than any other people posing a marketing challenge and challenges of other kinds that outsiders may be ill equipped to handle Bullis s descriptions and analyses of the Indian economy social structure history and business practices will provide the kind of understandings that Westerners need to enter the Indian market and compete successfully

Women and The Post.Colonial Indian State Dr. Nilendra Bardiar, 2022-03-15 The object of this book is to look into some aspects of law making policy formulations and implementation of the constitutional and legal provisions etc by the post colonial state in India vis vis gender justice and women empowerment and will try to examine the State s perspective on gender relations This will lead to theorizing the nature and character of the Post colonial State from a gender perspective The book will also go into the participation of women in the movement for their rights and the role of women's socio-political organizations in the process. While the primary concern of the book will be the post-colonial period, yet to put the things in the right perspective and to bring the context, it may be necessary to dwell briefly upon the pre-1947 period also, especially the period of 1920 onwards, to understand the working of the post-colonial state in the aftermath of Independence. During the colonial period, the construction of woman as an individual and as a social-familial being in the Gandhian discourse and Nehruvian vision's divergence from it in the post-colonial period is too important to be left out of the scope of this book.
