

TOEFL Writing: Independent Essay (Test 2) – Beginning with an outline

Topic	Do you agree or disagree with the following? It is better to have one or two close friends than to have a large number of casual acquaintances. Use specific reasons and details to support your answer.
Personally, I agree that it is better to have one or two close friends. To begin with, I find I only really have time for a couple of friends. In addition to the time issue, I think you can only truly rely on a limited number of close friends. And beyond available time and reliability, I personally feel that too many casual acquaintances are rather unfulfilling. So, to sum up, I'm more inclined to have just a couple of close friends than a large network of casual acquaintances.

This book presents papers in honor of Jerry Sadock's rich legacy in pragmatics and Autolexical Grammar. Highlights of the pragmatics section include Larry Horn on almost barely and assertoric inertia, William Lycan on Sadock's resolution of the Performadox with truth₁ and truth₂, and Jay Atlas on Moore's Paradox and the truth value of propositions of belief. Highlights of the Autolexical Grammar section include Fritz Newmeyer's comparison of the minimalist autolexical and transformational treatments of English nominals, Barbara Abbott's extension of Sadock's PRO-less syntax to a PRO-less semantics of the infinitival complements of know-how, and Haj Ross's syntactic connections between semantically related English pseudoclefts. Encompassing a range of languages: Aleut, Bangla, Greenlandic, Japanese, and a home-based sign language, and extending into psycholinguistics, language acquisition, sentence processing, and autism, this volume will interest a range of readers from theoretical linguists and philosophers of language to applied linguists and exotic language specialists. Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning Eli Hinkel, 2016-11-18. Volume III of the Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning like Volumes I and II is a comprehensive state-of-the-art overview of current research into social contexts of second language L2 foreign language FL teaching and learning, language policy, curriculum types of instruction, incremental language skills such as listening, speaking, reading, writing, vocabulary, and grammar, international communication, pragmatics, assessment, and testing. It differs from earlier volumes in its main purpose to provide a more in-depth discussion and detailed focus on the development of the essential language skills required for any type of communication: speaking, listening, reading, vocabulary, grammar, and writing. Volume III preserves continuity with previous volumes in its coverage of all the classical areas of research in L2 FL teaching and learning and applied linguistics but rather than offering a historical review of disciplinary traditions, it explores innovations and new directions of research, acknowledges the enormous complexity of teaching and learning the essential language abilities, and offers a diversity of perspectives. Chapter authors are all leading authorities in their disciplinary areas. What's new in Volume III? Updates the prominent areas of research including the sub-disciplines addressed in Volumes I and II and represents the disciplinary mainstays. Considers and discusses perspectives held by different schools of thought on the what, the how, and the why of teaching foundational language skills, including theories pedagogical principles and their implementation in practice Captures new and ongoing developments and trends in the key areas of L2 FL teaching and learning and innovative research topics that have gained substantial recognition in current publications including the role of corpora technology and digital literacy in L2 FL teaching and learning Examines new trends in language pedagogy and research such as an increased societal emphasis on teaching academic language for schooling somewhat contradictory definitions of literacy and the growing needs for instruction in intercultural communication Like IBT TOEFL 60 Independent Writing Heedal Kim, Thomas Raudenbush, 2012 Longman Preparation Course for the TOEFL Test Deborah Phillips, 2006 Longman Preparation Course for the TOEFL Test Next Generation IBT a book CD ROM package written by Deborah Phillips gives students all the tools they need to succeed on the new TOEFL integrated skills test Providing both a comprehensive language skills course and a wealth of practice for all sections of the test the Longman Preparation Course is appropriate for courses in TOEFL Test preparation or as a supplement to more general English courses Note You must have the audio program to use the listening material the Skills Practice the Mini Tests and the Complete Tests in the textbook Click here to order the audio program on CD or audiocassette The Student Book features Authentic material for all the new types of passages and questions on the test Diagnostic pre tests and post tests that allow students to identify strengths and weaknesses and assess improvement in each section Practice sections for the four skills Reading provides practice exercises in the new test formats including filling in a table or chart and paraphrasing Listening provides authentic conversations between two people in an academic setting and academic lectures with new questions about a speaker's attitude or purpose Speaking includes personal and expository tasks and integrated tasks Writing consists of expository and integrated tasks reading listening writing Eight mini tests that preview the test's integrated four skills format Two complete practice tests that familiarize students with the actual test format and timing The CD ROM features Completely different material from the Student Book Practice sections for all parts of the test including speaking Eight mini tests and two complete tests Pop up explanations for all items on the CD ROM Easy to use scoring and record keeping to monitor progress
