Central European communities compared to Western ones shape the children's lives And how did the routine divorce before Orthodox courts by ordinary men and women shape relationships among children and adults belonging to blended families By drawing on quantitative as well as qualitative approaches the book offers an historical demographical narrative of the frequency of stepfamilies in a comparative framework and also assesses the impact of stepparents on the mortality and career prospects of their stepchildren The ethnic and religious diversity of East Central Europe also allows for distinctions and comparisons to be made within the region Remarriage and Stepfamilies in East Central Europe 1600-1900 will appeal to researchers and students alike interested in the history of family marriage and society in East Central Europe Emotional Wisdom Mantak Chia, Dena Saxer, 2011-02-09 A groundbreaking book Emotional Wisdom reveals powerful ancient tools for transforming our painful emotions into happiness and health So-called negative emotions are valuable messages that let us know we are out of balance With compassion and humor Taoist authors Mantak Chia and Dena Saxer explain the messages that anger depression fear worry and stress offer us They present three easy-to-learn twenty-minute internal energy practices with helpful illustrations to turn these imbalances into harmony and joy They provide unusual nutritional advice for emotional healing and a Taoist First Aid section with proven natural remedies for minor ailments such as insomnia indigestion headaches and overeating Relevant quotes from the Tao Te Ching add inspiration to this practical life-changing book The Biographical review of Johnson, Massac, Pope and Hardin counties, Illinois, 1975 The Biographical review of Johnson Massac Pope and Hardin counties Illinois containing biographical sketches of prominent and representative citizens also biographies of the presidents of the United States Publisher Biographical Publishing Company Gorilla and the Bird Zack McDermott, 2017-09-26 Glorious one of the best memoirs I've read in years a tragicomic gem about family class race justice and the spectacular weirdness of Wichita McDermott can move from barely controlled hilarity to the brink of rage to aching tenderness in a single breath Marya Hornbacher New York Times Book Review Zack McDermott a 26-year-old Brooklyn public defender woke up one morning convinced he was being filmed Truman Show style as part of an audition for a TV pilot Every passerby was an actor every car would magically stop for him everything he saw was a cue from The Producer to help inspire the performance of a lifetime After a manic spree around Manhattan Zack who is bipolar was arrested on a subway platform and admitted to Bellevue Hospital So begins the story of Zack's freefall into psychosis and his desperate poignant often hilarious struggle to claw his way back to sanity It's a journey that will take him from New York City back to his Kansas roots and to the one person who might be able to save him his tough big-hearted Midwestern mother nicknamed the Bird whose fierce and steadfast love is the light in Zack's dark world Before his odyssey is over Zack will be tackled by guards in mental wards run naked through cornfields receive secret messages from the TV befriend a former Navy Seal and his talking stuffed monkey and see the Virgin Mary in the whorls of his own back hair But with the Bird's help he just might have a shot at pulling through starting over and maybe even meeting a partner who can love him back bipolar and all Introducing an
