Environmental Science and Information Application Technology David Chan, 2015-06-29 Environmental Science and Information Application Technology contains selected papers from the 2014 5th International Conference on Environmental Science and Information Application Technology ESIAT 2014 Hong Kong 7 8 November 2014 The book covers a wide variety of topics Global Environmental Change and Ecosystems Management Graphic and I Cloud Technology: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2014-10-31 As the Web grows and expands into ever more remote parts of the world the availability of resources over the Internet increases exponentially Making use of this widely prevalent tool organizations and individuals can share and store knowledge like never before Cloud Technology Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications investigates the latest research in the ubiquitous Web exploring the use of applications and software that make use of the Internet s anytime anywhere availability By bringing together research and ideas from across the globe this publication will be of use to computer engineers software developers and end users in business education medicine and more Strategic Information Technology Governance and Organizational Politics in Modern Business Iyamu, Tiko, 2015-07-17 Individually the fields of organizational politics and strategic information technology have soared in popularity Studies suggest that the interaction between the two would prove beneficial to both the academic and corporate domains This integration would serve to enable support and manage modern businesses Strategic Information Technology Governance and Organizational Politics in Modern Business gives voice to fresh perspectives on the development implementation and practice of information systems and technology in organizations This book is beneficial for business people undergraduate students postgraduate candidates and researchers looking to gain a more in depth understanding of the influence of socio technical factors on ICT operations Wonder in Contemporary Artistic Practice Christian Mieves, Irene Brown, 2017-01-12 Wonder has an established link to the history and philosophy of science However there is little acknowledgement of the relationship between the visual arts and wonder This book presents a new perspective on this overlooked connection allowing a unique insight into the role of wonder in contemporary visual practice Artists curators and art theorists give accounts of their approach to wonder through the use of materials objects and ways of exhibiting These accounts not only raise issues of a particular relevance to the way in which we encounter our reality today but ask to what extent artists utilize the function of wonder purposely in their work Decolonisation after Democracy Laurence Piper, 2020-05-21 Decolonisation after Democracy addresses the provocative idea that we need to rid higher education of lingering forms of colonial knowledge This matters because in the colonial era much knowledge was put to the service of subjugating indigenous peoples and the assumptions from this era may linger into the present Examples of deep rooted and foundational forms of knowledge that carry colonial traits are normative binaries such as civilised and backward modern and traditional and rational and superstitious In addition some accounts of positive values like freedom equality justice and democracy may hide the assumption that the western experience is the norm from which other kinds are rendered imitations deviations or pathologies In this collection some of South Africa s leading political scientists and academics engage with the challenge of decolonising knowledge in the research and teaching of politics It includes new insights about the state international relations clientelism statesociety relations and land reform and introduces new ways to engage the colonial library curriculum reform and the marginality of historically black institutions Finally the contributors deal with the decolonial challenge posed by the FeesMustFall student movements reflecting on issues of revolutionary politics and gender and sexual violence This book was originally published as a special issue of Politikon Postharvest Physiology and Biochemistry of Fruits and Vegetables Elhadi M. Yahia,Armando Carrillo-Lopez,2018-10-31 Postharvest Physiology and Biochemistry of Fruits and Vegetables presents an updated interrelated and sequenced view of the contribution of fruits and vegetables on human health their aspects of plant metabolism physical and chemical compositional changes during the entire fruit development lifecycle the physiological disorders and biochemical effects of modified controlled atmospheres and the biotechnology of horticultural crops The book is written specifically for those interested in preharvest and postharvest crop science and the impact of physiological and biochemical changes on their roles as functional foods Deals with the developmental aspects of the lifecycle in whole fruits Describes issues such as the morphology and anatomy of fruits beginning with the structural organization of the whole plant and explaining the fruit structure and its botanical classification Addresses biotechnological concepts that control firmness quality and the nutritional value of fruits

Higher Education in the BRICS Countries Simon Schwartzman,Rómulo Pinheiro,Pundy Pillay,2015-03-24 In spite of the increasing attention attributed to the rise in prominence of the BRICS Brazil Russia India China and South Africa countries few studies have looked at the ways in which broader social expectations with respect to the role of higher education across the BRICS have changed or not in recent years Our point of departure is that contrary to the conventional wisdom focusing on functionalistic perspectives higher education systems are not just designed by governments to fulfill certain functions but have a tendency for evolving in a rather unpredictable fashion as a result of the complex interplay between a number of internal and external factors In reality national higher education systems develop and change according to a complex process that encompasses the expectations of governmental agencies markets the aspirations of the population for the benefits of education the specific institutional traditions and cultures of higher education institutions and increasingly so the interests and strategies of the private firms entering and offering services in the higher education market This basically means that it is of outmost importance to move away from conceiving of universities or higher education as single monolithic actors or sector One way of doing this is by investigating a selected number of distinct but nonetheless interrelated factors or drivers which taken together help determine the nature and scope of the social compact between higher education its core actors and institutions and society at large government industry local communities professional associations The A to Z of
