Dishing Up Devotions Katie J. Trent,2021-11-09

Homeschooling is a challenging journey that is often misunderstood. The thirty-six weeks that parents have to educate their homeschooled children don't just come together magically. There are lessons to plan and oversee, records to keep, routines to follow, and kids to motivate. It can feel overwhelming as the teaching parent usually Mom tries to tackle both the educational and spiritual aspects of the children's lives while also keeping up with household tasks such as cooking and laundry. Dishing Up Devotions: 36 Activities for Homeschooling Families infuses faith and fun to strengthen family relationships while nourishing the teaching parent's soul. It features thirty-six weekly devotions, faith-building activities for the whole family, and baking recipes connected to the weekly character theme. Author Katie Trent's goal is to take the stress out of homeschooling with a devotional that the whole family will love through encouragement from other homeschooling parents. Biblical lessons even toddlers can understand. Interactive family activities. Delicious baking recipes related to the weekly theme.

Homeschooling just got easier and deliciously fun. North-western Christian Advocate, 1921. Story, Formation, and Culture Benjamin D. Espinoza, James Riley Estep Jr., Shirley Morgenthaler, 2018-10-15. Story Formation and Culture brings together a myriad of scholars, researchers, and ministry leaders into conversation about how we can effectively nurture the spirituality of children. Built around the three themes of story formation and culture, this volume blends cutting-edge research and insights with attention to how we can bring theory into practice in our ministries with children. The work of children's spiritual formation is often a marginalized component in the church's overall ministry. This volume seeks to equip pastors, leaders, and scholars with cutting-edge research and practices that effectively strengthen their ministries with children.

According to ex-evangelical Michael Camp, most American believers fail. Christian History 101. Drawing on his own historical research and missionary experience, he discovers that most popular Christian views of the Bible, church, sin, salvation, judgment, the kingdom of God, the end times, and the afterlife pretty much all religious sacred cows don't align with the beliefs of the original Jesus movement. Some of them not even close. Camp's Craft Brewed Jesus paves a fascinating journey of a group of disillusioned evangelicals and Catholics. When they decide to meet regularly over craft beers to study the historic foundations of their faith, their findings both rock their world and resolve ancient mysteries. They examine well-documented narratives of the early Jesus saga, Eastern streams of a lost Christianity and the roots of our modern religious assumptions all while striving to steer clear of either a conservative or liberal bias What they uncover is a vital refreshing spiritual paradigm no longer at odds with reality Grab your brew of choice and trace this transformational journey based on a true story that will encourage you in your walk of life and faith
