Urban Neighbourhood Formations Hilal Alkan, Nazan Maksudyan, 2020-03-04 This book examines the formation of urban neighbourhoods in the Middle East Africa and South Asia It departs from neighbourhoods to consider identity coexistence solidarity and violence in relations to a place Urban Neighbourhood Formations revolves around three major aspects of making and unmaking of neighbourhoods spatial and temporal boundaries of neighbourhoods neighbourhoods as imagined and narrated entities and neighbourhood as social relations With extensive case studies from Johannesburg to Istanbul and from Jerusalem to Delhi this volume shows how spatial amenities immaterial processes of narrating and dreaming and the lasting effect of intimacies and violence in a neighbourhood are intertwined and negotiated over time in the construction of moral orders urban practices and political identities at large This book offers insights into neighbourhood formations in an age of constant mobility and helps us understand the grassroots level dynamics of xenophobia and hostility as much as welcoming and openness It would be of interest for both academics and more general audiences as well as for students of undergraduate and postgraduate courses in Urban Studies and Anthropology

Neoliberalism in the Tourism and Hospitality Sector Nadda, Vipin, Bilan, Sahidi, Azam, Muhammad, Mulindwa, Dirisa, 2018-10-26 Globalization is increasing interconnectedness and is offering immense opportunities for businesses worldwide Although it has been taking place for hundreds of years it has sped up enormously over the last half century increasing international trade greater dependence on the global economy and freer movement of capital goods and services While globalization can create opportunities for wealth in emerging economies it still cannot completely close the gap between the world's poorest countries and the world's richest Many view globalization as a threat to cultural diversity believing that it can drown out local economies traditions and languages and make travel to certain regions less desirable Neoliberalism in the Tourism and Hospitality Sector provides innovative insights into the adoption of glocalization as a measure to mitigate the threats posed by globalization within the travel and tourism industries It is designed for policymakers researchers government officials and marketers considering glocalization as a means to sustain the relevancy of local business and trade Decolonisation after Democracy Laurence Piper,2020-05-21

Decolonisation after Democracy addresses the provocative idea that we need to rid higher education of lingering forms of colonial knowledge This matters because in the colonial era much knowledge was put to the service of subjugating indigenous peoples and the assumptions from this era may linger into the present Examples of deep rooted and foundational forms of knowledge that carry colonial traits are normative binaries such as civilised and backward modern and traditional and rational and superstitious In addition some accounts of positive values like freedom equality justice and democracy may hide the assumption that the western experience is the norm from which other kinds are rendered imitations deviations or pathologies In this collection some of South Africa s leading political scientists and academics engage with the challenge of decolonising knowledge in the research and teaching of politics It includes new insights about the state international relations clientelism statesociety relations and land reform and introduces new ways to engage the colonial library curriculum reform and the marginality of historically black institutions Finally the contributors deal with the decolonial challenge posed by the FeesMustFall student movements reflecting on issues of revolutionary politics and gender and sexual violence This book was originally published as a special issue of Politikon Citizenship Utopias in the Global South

Henri Onodera,Martta Kaskinen,Eija Ranta,2025-01-23 Citizenship Utopias in the Global South is an edited collection of empirical research that explores emergent forms of activism in Africa Asia and Latin America in times of multiple crises At the intersection of hope and disillusionment the diverse and thought provoking chapters investigate emerging forms of activism in the Global South including youth activisms anti racism struggles feminist initiatives online dissent and Indigenous movements In the 2020s many parts of the world are witnessing contradictory processes of popular claims to rights livelihoods and social justice and subsequent forms of populist authoritarianism and the securitization of civil society Previously hopeful calls for dignity democracy and social justice through protesting strikes civil society campaigns legal reforms and elections for example have been met with disdain and civic disengagement This book investigates the re imagination and pursuit of citizen activism in such times of popular disillusionment It explores citizenship utopias as social imaginaries that are enacted and that articulate an ideal social order or democratic polity with ideal forms of experiencing citizenship Its chapters interrogate conventional approaches to citizenship by introducing a nuanced and empirically grounded exploration of the complex ways in which people experience negotiate and engage in the societal changes that they aspire towards The examination of citizenship utopias outlines contemporary signals for transformative futures and their possibilities The book undertakes a fresh effort at contributing to the shifting terrain of critical development studies political anthropology political sociology and decolonising scholarship by engaging in discussions about citizenship activism
