

Turabian Style Guidelines

This handout provides simple guidelines for using Turabian style. See A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, by Kate Turabian, in the Writing Lab for further instructions.

1. Title Page (sections 1.7, 14.18)
 - The title page presents the name of the university; the full title of the paper; the subtitle, if any; the course title; the date; and your name.
 - Please note that format for the title page may vary by instructor.
2. Margins (sections 14.2-14.3)
 - Use at least one-inch margins on all sides of all pages. All information should be within these margins.
3. Spacing (sections 3.5-4, 5.4, 14.4-14.5)
 - The text should be double-spaced, with the exception of block quotations, notes, captions, and long headings.
 - Indent the first line of a new paragraph by using the tab key.
 - Block quotations (quotes of two or more sentences that run to eight or more lines of text) are indented four spaces from the left margin and single-spaced. Quotation marks are not used in block quotations.
 - One space, not two (in other words, a regular word space), follows any mark of punctuation that ends a sentence: periods, question marks, and exclamation points.
4. Notes (sections 8.7-8.11, 8.15)
 - Use the endnote or footnote function of the word processor to create notes.
 - Use superscript for reference numbers in the text.
 - The reference numbers (followed by a period) in the notes themselves are normal size.
 - Number notes consecutively throughout the paper unless it is divided into chapters. In that case, numbering starts over with each new chapter.
 - A reference number in the text appears at the end of a sentence or clause. It will precede a dash but follow any other punctuation, including a parenthesis.
 - A note number usually follows a quotation.
 - Notes are single-spaced, with a blank line between notes.
 - 4a. Endnotes (sections 8.2, 14.38)
 - Endnotes appear at the end of a paper/article on a "Notes" page, after any appendices but before the bibliography.
 - Endnotes work best for tables, quoted poetry, and matters requiring special typography.
 - 4b. Footnotes (section 14.13)
 - Footnotes appear at the bottom of the page below a separator line.

A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, Ninth Edition Kate L. Turabian, 2018-04-27 When Kate L Turabian first put her famous guidelines to paper she could hardly have imagined the world in which today s students would be conducting research Yet while the ways in which we research and compose papers may have changed the fundamentals remain the same writers need to have a strong research question construct an evidence based argument cite their sources and structure their work in a logical way A Manual for Writers of Research Papers Theses and Dissertations also known as Turabian remains one of the most popular books for writers because of its timeless focus on achieving these goals. This new edition filters decades of expertise into modern standards. While previous editions incorporated digital forms of research and writing, this edition goes even further to build information literacy, recognizing that most students will be doing their work largely or entirely online and on screens. Chapters include updated advice on finding, evaluating, and citing a wide range of digital sources and also recognize the evolving use of software for citation management, graphics, and paper format and submission. The ninth edition is fully aligned with the recently released Chicago Manual of Style 17th edition as well as with the latest edition of The Craft of Research. Teachers and users of the previous editions will recognize the familiar three-part structure. Part 1 covers every step of the research and writing process, including drafting and revising. Part 2 offers a comprehensive guide to Chicago's two methods of source citation: notes, bibliography, and author-date. Part 3 gets into matters of editorial style and the correct way to present quotations and visual material. A Manual for Writers also covers an issue familiar to writers of all levels: how to conquer the fear of tackling a major writing project. Through eight decades and millions of copies, A Manual for Writers has helped generations shape their ideas into compelling research papers. This new edition will continue to be the gold standard for college and graduate students in virtually all academic disciplines. Bestselling, trusted, and time-tested advice for writing research papers. The best interpretation of Chicago style for higher education students and researchers. Definitive, clear, and easy to read, with plenty of examples. Shows how to compose a strong research question, construct an evidence-based argument, cite sources, and structure work in a logical way. Essential for anyone interested in learning about research. Everything any student or teacher needs to know concerning paper writing. Just Say the Word! G. Robert Jacks, 1996. Over the years I've heard some wonderful sermons, writes G. Robert Jacks. I've also heard some duds. Some have been so extemporaneous they sounded as if the preacher hadn't prepared anything. Some have been such wondrously crafted literary pieces they sounded as if the preacher wanted to sound wondrously crafted and literary. Some have sounded as though the preacher were giving a lecture or reading a term paper. That's because the preacher had written a lecture or term paper. And some have captured the attention and the imagination and set the spark to ignite faith in the hearer. That's because they were written to be listened to and to appeal to the sense world of the hearers. Drawing on nearly thirty years of experience in critiquing sermon delivery, Jacks here offers a practical, hands-on approach to writing sermons that consider listeners first. Jacks gives samples and examples of writing that effectively captures and holds an audience's attention, and he offers practical tips and suggestions intended to help each of us find a preaching style and voice of our own. He also shows how to translate the jargon of theological textbooks into everyday language, suggests methods for rewriting sermons to avoid some of the pomposity of sermonic proclamation, and demonstrates ways to retell biblical narratives in fresh and imaginative ways. Just Say the Word: Writing for the Ear is a valuable resource that will help pastors and lay leaders communicate as effectively as possible the faith that is ours to share. Writing Research Papers
