Wace and Blegen C.W. Zerner, 2024-02-19 This international conference sponsored jointly by the American School of Classical Studies and the British School of Archaeology at Athens was dedicated to the memories of Alan John Bayard Wace and Carl William Blegen and to their long archaeological collaboration The main theme of the conference was taken from their pioneering article Pottery as Evidence for Trade and Colonisation in the Aegean Bronze Age Klio 32 1939 The papers presented reflect the current state of scholarly opinion about prehistoric pottery from Mainland Greece and the extensive trade in that pottery 50 years after Wace and Blegen s article With 39 papers by archaeologists from 13 countries the volume presents comprehensive surveys by period and area as well as detailed discussions of new finds and problems ranging from the Early Middle and Late Bronze Ages on the Mainland and islands of Greece as well as Cyprus the Levant Egypt Anatolia and Italy

Critical Perspectives on Language Education Katie Dunworth, Grace Zhang, 2014-07-24 The studies in this volume investigate how multilingual education involves a critical engagement with questions of identity and culture and a movement towards new ways of being and belonging It addresses previously under explored issues in particular the integration of theories like thirdness and practices of language education and maintenance with relevance to the Asia Pacific region The analyses reveal the delicate balance of interests of all stakeholders and offer detailed insights into the reality of multilingual education with specific examples of Chinese English Japanese and Tamil In a globalised world effective language education has become increasingly important and the studies presented here have the potential to inform and advance evidence based multilingual education through adding important dimensions of theoretical exploration and refreshing empirical resources

Has the Bell Gone Yet? Jon Janssen, 2017-01-18 Jeremy Smithers is living in a retirement village and suffering from ill health He has a story that he desperately wants to tell for several reasons focusing primarily on the funnier side of his forty years of teaching in secondary schools He employs a young writer to help him to transform his ideas to written word Gradually from a very difficult beginning a more meaningful relationship comes to fruition as they work on the book together But Smithers is hiding more than one or two secrets from his past that he definitely does not want to come out Slowly the pieces are put together through his fractured narration which reveals his desire to show an often misunderstood side of teachers and teaching and the observations and reactions of his collaborator the young protagonist Elaine
