Halakhah: Legal prescriptions for daily life.

Aggadah: Narrative, non-legal texts that illustrate and help illuminate the halakhah. Midrash: Commentary on halakhah and Aggadah.

The Sabbath: Jews rest from all work on Saturday, the Seventh Day of the Week; mimicking God, who rested on the 7th Day of Creation.

Sukkoth: Commemoration of the 40 years wandering the desert after the Exodus from Egypt. Pesach (Passover): A weeklong commemoration of the liberation from slavery in Egypt.

Review:

For Jews, God is:

- - One;
- - Creator of the world and everything in it;
- - Transcendent and immanent: completely above and beyond the world yet completely present to it;
- - God is eternal and rules the universe;
- - God is one;
- - God is creator;
- - Creation is one;
- - God's divine providence or governorship extends to the whole world
- - Revealed to Abraham, gave the law to his people on Mount Sinai, and spoke to his people through the prophets.

Why is Judaism a "religion of the book"?

Judaism is a religion of the book because Jews dedicate them to the study of the law given on Mount Sinai as recorded in the Torah. Commentaries on the Torah

Smith Judaism Study Guide:

Reader's Guide to Judaism Michael Terry, 2013-12-02 The Reader's Guide to Judaism is a survey of English language translations of the most important primary texts in the Jewish tradition. The field is assessed in some 470 essays discussing individuals, Martin Buber, Gluckel of Hameln, literature, Genesis, Ladino, Literature, thought and beliefs, Holiness, Bioethics, practice, Dietary Laws, Passover, history, Venice, Baghdadi Jews of India, and arts and material culture, Synagogue Architecture, Costume. The emphasis is on Judaism rather than on Jewish studies more broadly. The Jewish Women's Studies Guide Ellen Sue Levi Elwell, Edward R. Levenson, 1982. Covenantal Conversations Darrell Jodock, Explores the eight most important topics in Jewish-Christian relations. Features the key leaders in Jewish-Christian relations and theology. Includes a study of the Arab-Israeli/Palestinian conflict. Study Guide Emily V. Baker, 2000. Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor, 2008-06-10 The Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature originally published in 2005 is a landmark work in the burgeoning field of religion and nature. It covers a vast and interdisciplinary range of material from thinkers to religious traditions and beyond with clarity and style. Widely praised by reviewers and the recipient of two reference work awards since its publication, see www.religionandnature.com. This new, more affordable version is a must-have book for anyone interested in the manifold and fascinating links between religion and nature in all their many senses. The Jewish Student's Guide to American Colleges Lee Goldberg, Lana Goldberg, 1989. Backgrounds of Early Christianity Everett Ferguson, 2003-08-19 Having long served as a standard introduction to the world of the early church, Everett Ferguson's Backgrounds of Early Christianity has been expanded and updated in this third edition. The book explores and unpacks the Roman, Greek, and Jewish political, social, religious, and philosophical backgrounds necessary for a good historical understanding of the New Testament and the early church. New to this edition are revisions of Ferguson's original material, updated bibliographies, and fresh discussions of first-century social life, Gnosticism, and of the Dead Sea Scrolls and other Jewish literature. The Modern Jewish Experience Jack Wertheimer, 1993-01-01 The pace of scholarly research and academic publication in fields of Judaica has quickened dramatically in the second half of the twentieth century. The major consumers and producers of this new scholarship are found in Jewish Studies programs that have proliferated at institutions of higher learning around the world since the 1960s. From the vantage point of the nineties, it is difficult to fathom that until thirty years ago Jewish studies courses were mainly limited to a few elite universities, rabbinical seminaries, and Hebrew teachers colleges. Today there are few colleges at public or private institutions of higher learning that do not sponsor at least some courses on aspects of Jewish study. In light of this explosion of research on Jewish topics, non-specialists and educators can benefit from guidance through the thicket of new monographs, source anthologies, textbooks, and scholarly essays. The Modern Jewish Experience, the result of a multi-year collaboration between the International Center for the University Teaching of Jewish Civilization and the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, offers just such guidance on a range of issues.

pertaining to modern Jewish history culture religion and society With contributions from two dozen leading scholars The Modern Jewish Experience presents practical information and guidelines intended to expand the teaching repertoire for undergraduate courses on modern Jewish life as well as a means for college professors to enrich and diversify their courses with discussions on otherwise neglected Jewish communities social and political issues religious and ideological movements and interdisciplinary perspectives Sample syllabi are also included for survey courses set in diverse linguistic settings An indispensable resource for undergraduate instruction this volume may also be used to great profit by educators of adults in synagogue and Jewish communal settings as well as by individual students engaged in private study

Three Questions of Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2021-10-01 The academic study of Judaism requires a systematic inquiry into the history literature and religion and eventually the theology as revealed in the historical documents themselves Under this premise Three Questions of Formative Judaism encounters the canonical writings of Judaism in the context of their creation at a certain time and place How something is said thus becomes as important as what is said Bringing nearly fifty years of research to bear on these fundamental questions Jacob Neusner challenges his readers to face the difficult often unasked or neglected questions about the nature background and purposes of Rabbinic Judaism and rewards them with an enriched understanding and a stronger foundation for tackling the even more elusive questions concerning the theology of formative Judaism This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details SCM Studyguide:

Theology in the Contemporary World Ben Pugh,2017-10-30 No sooner have they mastered the basics than students of theology can quickly find themselves in over their heads They are bombarded with claim and counter claim as soon as they want to tackle anything topical The contentious subjects tend to be the historical Jesus gender and sexuality or the atonement Other subjects might be less contentious but attract an astonishing excess of literature Take the vast literature tackling the subject of the Church for instance or the bloated body of tomes on various aspects of Pneumatology This book tries to provide the bewildered and intimidated student with a primer that is at once introductory and incisive approachable and informative It will help those training for ministry to recover their fascination for the subject of theology and how it could apply to their future ministry First Century Palestinian Judaism David Ray Bourquin,2007-01-01 Jesus was a Jew That simple statement carries with it a millennia of cultural bias persecution and ignorance David Ray Bourquin attempts to shed some light on what it meant to be a Jew during the Roman Period with this detailed annotated bibliography of works in English Following a brief introduction and guide on how to use the book Bourquin divides his work into three major sections A Primary Sources B Books and C Periodical and Serial Articles In each section materials are arranged by subject and in each sub section in alphabetical order by main entry Entries include complete bibliographical data plus concise descriptive and analytical annotations A glossary and four detailed indexes all correlated to entry numbers complete the volume Every student of the period will want a copy of this carefully compiled bibliography The Sacred Power of Language in Modern Jewish Thought Shira Wolosky,2023-07-24 Judaic cultures have a commitment to language that is exceptional Language in many form texts books and scrolls learning interpretation material practices that generate material practices are central to Judaic conduct experience and spirituality In this Judaic traditions differ from philosophical and theological ones that make language secondary Traditional metaphysics has privileged the immaterial and unchanging as unchanging truth that language can at best convey and at worst distort Such traditional metaphysics has come under critique since Nietzsche in ways that the author explores Shira Wolosky argues that Judaic traditions converge with contemporary metaphysical critique rather than being its target Focusing on the work of Derrida Levinas Scholem and others the author examines traditions of Judaic interpretation against backgrounds of biblical exegesis sign theory as it recasts language meaning in ways that concord with Judaic textuality negative theology as it differs in Judaic tradition from those which negate language itself and lastly outline a discourse ethics that draws on Judaic language theory This study is directed to students and scholars of Judaic thought religious studies and theology theory of interpretation Levinas and other modern Jewish philosophical writers placing them in broader contexts of philosophy theology and language theory It is shown how Jewish discourses on language address urgent problems of value and norms in the contemporary world that has challenged traditional anchors of truth and meaning A Theology of Mark's Gospel David E. Garland,2015-10-06 A Theology of Mark s Gospel is the fourth volume in the BTNT series This landmark textbook written by leading New Testament scholar David E Garland thoroughly explores the theology of Mark's Gospel It both covers major Markan themes and also sets forth the distinctive contribution of Mark to the New Testament and the canon of Scripture providing readers with an in depth and holistic grasp of Markan theology in the larger context of the Bible This substantive evangelical treatment of Markan theology makes an ideal college or seminary level text

Situating Josephus' Life within Ancient Autobiography Davina Grojnowski, 2023-06-15 Davina Grojnowski examines Life the autobiographical text written by ancient Jewish historian Flavius Josephus from a literary studies perspective and in relation to genre theory In order to generate a framework of literary practices Josephus Life and other texts within Josephus literary spheres all associated with autobiography are the focus of a detailed literary analysis which compares the texts in terms of established features such as structure topoi and subject This methodological examination enables a better understanding of the literary boundaries of autobiography in antiquity and illustrates Josephus thought process during the composition of Life Grojnowski also offers a comparative study of autobiographical practices in Greek and Roman literature demonstrating the value of passive education supplementing what had been taught actively and its impact on authors and audiences As a result she provides insight into the development of literary practices in reaction to various forms of education and subsequently reflects on the religious self views of authors and audiences Simultaneously Grojnowski reacts to current discourses on ancient literary genres and demonstrates that ancient autobiography existed as a teachable literary genre in classical literature
