Wharton Revisited English Edition:

Teaching Edith Wharton's Major Novels and Short Fiction Ferdâ Asya, 2021-05-13 This book translates recent scholarship into pedagogy for teaching Edith Wharton's widely celebrated and less known fiction to students in the twenty first century. It comprises such themes as American and European cultures, material culture, identity, sexuality, class, gender, law, history, journalism, anarchism, war, addiction, disability, ecology, technology, and social media in historical, cultural, transcultural, international, and regional contexts. It includes Wharton's works compared to those of other authors taught online, read in foreign universities, and studied in film adaptations.

The Secrets and Silences of Edith Wharton's Women Isabelle Parsons, 2025-03-11 Edith Wharton's sensitively observed portraits of women's lives a century ago resonate into the present day, captivating readers now as they did then. Threaded throughout her accounts is a rich seam of secrets and silences that reveals Wharton's keen grasp of the realities navigated by women and her astute use of withholding to tell their stories. This book explores her frequent marshalling of secrets and silences presented as an integral part of her literary aesthetic to cast light on her enduring interest in women's experiences in private and public settings during the early twentieth century.

The Memory of Architecture in Edith Wharton's Travel Writings Ágnes Zsófia Kovács, 2024-09-13 Edith Wharton was not only the author of novels and short stories but also of drama, poetry, autobiography, interior decoration, and travel writing. This study focuses on Wharton's symbolic representations of architecture in her travel writings. It shows how a network of allusions to travel writing and art history books influenced Wharton's representations of architectural and natural spaces. The book demonstrates Wharton's complex relationship to works of art, historians John Ruskin, Miles, Arthur C. Porter, and travel authors Wolfgang Goethe, Henry Adams, Henry James in the trajectory of her travel writing. Kovács surveys how the acknowledgment of Wharton's sources sheds light both on the author's model of aesthetic understanding and scenic architectural descriptions and how the shock of the Great War changed Wharton's travel destinations but not her symbolic view of architecture as a mediator of things past. Wharton's symbolic representations of architecture provide a new key to her travel writings.
