Tafsir Al Azhar:

Tafsir Al-Azhar Hamka,1982 Approaches to the Qur'an in Contemporary Indonesia Abdullah Saeed,2005-11-10
Indonesia is the world's most populous Muslim country but much of its scholarly work on Islam is not available to a wider readership. This volume brings together a wide range of Muslim intellectuals from traditionalists to modernists and makes their varied approaches to the Qur'an accessible to an English speaking audience for the first time. Topics covered range from textual interpretation and religious pluralism to debates on polygamy within the Indonesian Muslim women's movement and the use of Qur'anic verses in contemporary Indonesian politics. Tafsir Al-Azhar Hamka,1983 Bibliografi p 2140 2141

The Qur'an in the Malay-Indonesian World Majid Daneshgar, Peter G. Riddell, Andrew Rippin, 2016-06-10. The largely Arabo-centric approach to the academic study of tafsir has resulted in a lack of literature exploring the diversity of Qur'anic interpretation in other areas of the Muslim majority world. The essays in The Qur'an in the Malay Indonesian World resolve this aiming to expand our knowledge of tafsir and its history in the Malay Indonesian world. Highlighting the scope of Qur'anic interpretation in the Malay world in its various vernaculars, it also contextualizes this work to reveal its place as part of the wider Islamic world, especially through its connections to the Arab world and demonstrates the strength of these connections. The volume is divided into three parts written primarily by scholars from Malaysia and Indonesia. Beginning with a historical overview, it then moves into chapters with a more specifically regional focus to conclude with a thematic approach by looking at topics of some controversy in the broader world. Presenting new examinations of an under-researched topic, this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Islamic studies and Southeast Asian studies. Proceedings of the International Conference on Sustainable Innovation on Humanities, Education, and Social Sciences (ICOSI-HESS 2022) Dyah Mutiarin, Achmad Nurmandi, Arie Kusuma Paksi, Zain Rafique, 2023-02-10. This is an open access book. This proceeding consists of research presented in ICOSI UMY on 20-21 July 2022 at Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta. The conference covers the topic of governance, international relations, law, education, humanities, and social sciences. The COVID-19 pandemic, first time that occurred in 2019, has brought many changes that constrain all countries to adapt quickly. The crisis has shown vulnerabilities and gaps in several primary systems including healthcare, social protection, education, value chains, production networks, financial markets, and the ecosystem. One of the efforts that each country can take to rise from the COVID-19 pandemic is through strengthening multilateralism, international solidarity, and global partnerships. Hence, this conference raises the central theme: Strengthening Global Partnership for Resilience. This theme covers sub-themes that allow prospective scholars to submit their papers for Virtual Conferences presentation under the following scopes: Social Sciences, Humanities, Educations, and Religious Studies. Presented papers will also get a chance to be published in our remarkable partner publishers. Through the International Symposium on Social Humanities Education and Religious Studies (ISSHERS) and Asian Conference on Comparative Laws (Asian COL), we hope that participants will express their innovative and creative ideas to provide benefits and contribute knowledge to strengthen global partnerships among countries Finally all 75 papers published in this proceedings are expected not only as research output but can be developed further into prototypes or evidence for policy making

Qur'ānic Hermeneutics in the 19th and 20th Century Georges Tamer, 2023-12-18 The fourth volume of the groundbreaking Handbook of Qur'ānic Hermeneutics comprises 29 chapters dealing with the hermeneutical approach to the Qur'ān by Muslim authors of the 19th and 20th centuries These authors had to deal with the changes and influences of modernity on Muslim society Scientific progress and related developments in the natural sciences and humanities posed new questions and challenges to the traditional interpretation of the Qur'ān The confrontation with the colonial period also shaped the way of thinking of some of these authors and their hermeneutical work This led them to a search for identity and a reassessment of their own traditions and beliefs Authors in this volume reflect on these historical experiences in their interpretation of the Qur'ān The hermeneutical approaches to the Qur'ān in this volume are thus closely linked to the social political and intellectual conditions in which the authors have done their work They represent a response to the challenges and changes of their time By critically engaging with modernity scientific progress and the colonial legacy these authors contributed to understanding and interpreting Islam in a new context

Hamka and Islam Khairudin Aljunied, 2018-09-15 Since the early twentieth century Muslim reformers have been campaigning for a total transformation of the ways in which Islam is imagined in the Malay world One of the most influential is the author Haji Abdul Malik bin Abdul Karim Amrullah commonly known as Hamka In Hamka and Islam Khairudin Aljunied employs the term cosmopolitan reform to describe Hamka's attempt to harmonize the many streams of Islamic and Western thought while posing solutions to the various challenges facing Muslims Among the major themes Aljunied explores are reason and revelation moderation and extremism social justice the state of women in society and Sufism in the modern age as well as the importance of history in reforming the minds of modern Muslims Aljunied argues that Hamka demonstrated intellectual openness and inclusiveness toward a whole range of thoughts and philosophies to develop his own vocabulary of reform attesting to Hamka's unique ability to function as a conduit for competing Islamic and secular groups Hamka and Islam pushes the boundaries of the expanding literature on Muslim reformism and reformist thinkers by grounding its analysis within the Malay experience and by using the concept of cosmopolitan reform in a new context

Scriptural Polemics Mun'im Sirry, 2014-05-01 A number of passages in the Qur'ān criticize Jews and Christians from claims of exclusive salvation and charges of Jewish and Christian falsification of revelation to cautions against the taking of Jews and Christians as patrons allies or intimates Mun im Sirry offers a novel exploration of these polemical passages which have long been regarded as obstacles to peaceable interreligious relations through the lens of twentieth century tafsir exegesis He considers such essential questions as How have modern contexts shaped Muslim reformers understanding of the Qur an and how have the reformers interpretations recontextualized these passages Can the Qur an s polemical texts be interpreted fruitfully for interactions among religious communities in the modern world Sirry also reflects on the various definitions of apologetic or polemic as relevant sacred texts and analyzes reformist tafsirs with careful attention to argument literary context and rhetoric in order to illuminate the methods positions and horizons of the exegeses Scriptural Polemics provides both a critical engagement with the tafsirs and a lucid and original examination of Qur anic language logic and dilemmas showing how the dynamic and varied reformist interpretations of these passages open the way for a less polemical approach to other religions

The Qur'an Oliver Leaman, 2006-05-02 A RUSA 2007 Outstanding Reference Title. The Qur'an is the source of inspiration for one of the world's major religions followed today by over a billion people. It plays a central role in Islam and ever since it appeared fourteen hundred years ago has been the subject of intense debate. Some of this has been carried out by Muslims and some by those hostile or indifferent to Islam, producing a very wide range of views. Authored by forty-three international experts, the objective of The Qur'an: An Encyclopedia is to present this diversity of thought, approach and school without priority in order to give a strong appreciation of the range of response that the text has provoked throughout its history and providing students and researchers with a powerful one-volume resource covering all aspects of the text and its reception. Islam and the Qur'an are much in the news today and there is a public debate going on in which things are said about the Qur'an without much knowledge or understanding of the book. Every effort has been made to help the reader use the Encyclopedia as an investigative tool in Qur'anic studies. The volume assumes no previous knowledge of the Qur'an, Islam or Arabic. Technical terms are explained in the text itself and the style of each entry is designed to be as self-contained as possible. Entries are cross-referenced and many include a brief bibliography. At the end of the work there is a substantial annotated bibliography providing a detailed guide to the most significant books, journals and articles in Qur'anic Studies. There is a full index. The readership will include those seeking basic information on the Qur'an; however, the substantial number of longer entries means that it will also be used by specialists.

David in the Muslim Tradition Khaleel Mohammed, 2014-12-24. In Chapter 38, 21-25, the Qur'an relates a very short narrative about the biblical King David's seeking and receiving God's forgiveness. The earliest Muslim exegetes interpreted the Qur'anic verses as referring to the Hebrew Bible's story of David's adultery with Bathsheba as related in 2 Samuel 12:1-13. Later Muslims, however, having developed the concept of prophetic impeccability, radically reinterpreted those verses to show David as innocent of any wrongdoing, since in the Muslim tradition he is not only a king but a prophet as well. David in the Muslim Tradition: The Bathsheba Affair outlines the approach of the Qur'an to shared scriptures and provides a detailed look at the development of the exegetical tradition and the factors that influenced such exegesis. By establishing four distinct periods of exegesis, Khaleel Mohammed examines the most famous explanations in each stratum to show the metamorphosis from blame to exculpation. He shows that the Muslim development is not unique but is very much in following the Jewish and Christian traditions wherein a similar sanitization of David's image has occurred.
