Brainless Sameness Bob Sornson, 2018-08-16 This book offers a careful look at how we came to have our traditional education system and how it met the needs of a different time. By looking back at the past we can take on the task of change without casting blame but with understanding. We will consider the systems design of the curriculum driven one size fits all educational model why it no longer meets our needs and how to devise a system which can deliver a better future for our children and for ourselves as educators.

Look, Listen, Learn, LEAD Jeffery Smith, Kate Wolfe Maxlow, John Caggianno, Karen L. Sanzo, 2020-10-01. Look Listen Learn LEAD A District Wide Systems Approach to Teaching and Learning in PreK-12 lays out the transformational journey of Hampton City Schools HCS an urban school division of 30 schools in southeastern Virginia. Our school district faces numerous challenges such as 62% of students receiving free and reduced price lunch and 14% of students holding an IEP and in 2015 2016 Hampton City Schools state accreditation rate was approximately half the statewide rate and on a downward trend In only three years that was turned around and HCS exceeded the statewide accreditation rate a more than 100% improvement with 100% of our schools accredited without conditions We attribute this in large part to our dedicated educators and their implementation of district wide systems for curriculum instruction checking for student understanding climate and culture The goal of this book is to break down the process of what it takes to bring about large scale educational change that is sustainable We describe a process for developing a strong mission and vision to undergird the work around a variety of district wide systems This book provides insights into how to improve climate and culture create a guaranteed and viable written curriculum establish a process for evaluating its implementation and create a balanced assessment framework to measure student success Complete with example templates action plans and lessons learned this book is a true example of theory into practice to bring about sustained improvement for all learners Block Scheduling Eol 2000 G 12 Holt Rinehart & Winston,1999-08-02

Conceptions of Giftedness and Talent Robert J. Sternberg,Don Ambrose,2020-12-18 This book brings together eminent and emerging scholars to present cutting edge research on diverse conceptions of giftedness and talent from a range of international perspectives It covers classical views emphasizing IQ but also seeks to move the academic debate on from the common exclusive emphasis on IQ based skills In each chapter the contributors address both theoretical advances and practical applications for administrators teachers and parents The editors conclude by integrating the different points of view and showing ways in which major ideas even when given different names can be integrated to provide a holistic and integral viewpoint on giftedness and talent This book will appeal to students and scholars of creativity giftedness and gifted education as well as to practitioners teachers and education policymakers Schoolwide Action Research for Professional Learning Communities Karl H. Clauset,Dale W. Lick,Carlene U. Designing Instruction Judith K. March, Karen H. Peters, 2008. A fresh new approach that strengthens the need for teaching with creative thinking strategies for administrative leadership teams. Few textbooks have such detailed examples combined with the background study of best practices. The authors have great credibility, experience, resources, and abundant research to support their proposal. A very well-written text offering ample review of the research.

Sara E. Spruce, Professor of Education, Olivet Nazarene University. Use this research-based instructional model to meet students' achievement goals. As the achievement gap between advantaged and disadvantaged students gets wider, teachers and administrators need a proven process to help all students meet the requirements of NCLB. This practitioner-friendly guidebook provides a step-by-step approach to a complete standards-based curriculum and the integration of best practices into the delivery and assessment of instruction in every classroom. The authors present three capacity-building features of the design process: 1. training for building leadership teams to help teachers plan and lead the reform process; 2. stewardship training to assist district administrators and principals in supporting and sustaining the implemented reforms; and 3. a collaborative observation process to help teachers work together and in partnership with principals to monitor and improve classroom instruction. Offering an education model that has been field-tested with more than 50 school districts in the U.S. and Canada, this book shows school leaders how to maximize collaborative observation and other team leadership processes to integrate reforms into a school's existing culture. Educators will learn ways to integrate instructional design with successful instructional reform. Strengthen the learning culture through standards. Develop effective performance indicators. Apply curriculum mapping to instructional design. Designing Instruction supports teachers and administrators working together to raise student achievement by using proven instructional design and best practices.
