Feminism, Dramaturgy, and the Contemporary British History Play Rebecca Benzie, 2024-08-22 When we think of the contemporary British history play why might we automatically think of playwrights such as David Hare Howard Brenton Peter Gill and Edward Bond Because for decades the writing of the history play has been the preserve of the white male This book provides a vital feminist intervention into the dramaturgy of history plays investigating work produced at major British theatres from 2000 to the present written by a generation of innovative women playwrights This much needed study explores the use of history specifically Elizabethan Restoration Victorian and early 20th century in contemporary playwriting in order to interrogate the gender politics of this work Within the framework of contemporary feminism including the pivotal MeToo movement the book looks at post 2000s feminist drama that somehow represents the past Through delving into the recurring tropes and their politics in the light of current feminist debate the author helps us grasp how these plays essentially re imagine gender politics Plays that are considered include Emilia Morgan Lloyd Malcolm Swive Elizabeth Ella Hickson An August Bank Holiday Lark Deborah McAndrew The Empress Tanika Gupta Red Velvet Lolita Chakrabarti Scuttlers Rona Munro I Joan Charlie Josephine Blue Stockings and Nell Gwynn Jessica Swale and the musical Six Toby Marlow and Lucy Moss

Persky,Brent A. Sandene,Janice M. Askew,1998 The last several years have seen a growing resolve among educators and policymakers to assure the place of a solid arts education in U S schools In 1997 the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP conducted a national assessment in the arts at grade 8 The assessment included the areas of music theater and visual arts For each of these arts areas this Report Card describes the achievement of eighth graders within the general population and in various subgroups Taken with the information provided about instructional and institutional variables this report gives a context for evaluating the status of students learning in the arts The arts assessment was designed to measure the content specifications described in the arts framework for NAEP The arts have a unique capacity to integrate intellect emotions and physical skills in the creation of meaning Meaningful arts assessments need to be built around three arts processes creating performing and responding To capture these processes the arts assessment exercises included authentic tasks that assessed students knowledge and skills and constructed response and multiple choice questions that explore students abilities to describe analyze interpret and evaluate works of art in written form Data are reported in overall summaries for creating performing and responding in terms of student and school reported background variables Student results for theater are discussed in terms of teacher reported background variables as well The major findings of the assessment are that a large percentage of grade 8 students attend schools in which music and visual arts were taught usually by specialists most students attended schools in which instruction following district or state curricula was offered in music and visual arts but not in theater or dance and most visual arts and music instruction took place in school facilities that were dedicated to that subject JH
