The Collected Works of E. F. Benson: 23 Novels & 30+ Short Stories (Illustrated): Dodo Trilogy, Queen Lucia, Miss Mapp, David Blaize, The Room in The Tower, Paying Guests, The Relentless City, The Angel of Pain, The Rubicon and more E. F. Benson, 2015-08-11 Edward Frederic Benson 1867 1940 was an English novelist biographer memoirist archaeologist and short story writer known professionally as E F Benson He started his novel writing career in 1893 with the fashionably controversial Dodo which was an instant success and followed it with a variety of satire and romantic and supernatural melodrama He repeated the success of Dodo with sequels to this novel but the greatest success came relatively late in his career with The Mapp and Lucia series consisting of six novels and two short stories The novels feature humorous incidents in the lives of mainly upper middle class British people in the 1920s and 1930s vying for social prestige and one upmanship in an atmosphere of extreme cultural snobbery Benson was also known as a writer of atmospheric oblique and at times humorous or satirical ghost stories Short Stories of the Old West Walter A. Abbott, 2015-11-11 The stories span the 1800s of the Old West along with true life experiences of those times This was a time where only the strong survived and the weak became victims to lawlessness and greed The stories encompass the human factor of love and tragedy experienced in the personal strife and the influence of the Civil War It was when families made heart breaking decisions to go west to take up new lives and promises of a better future The path along the way was strewn with greatness and heartaches as well as strong commitments knowing that anything is possible E. Collected Works of Charlotte Perkins Gilman: Short Stories, Novels, Poems and Essays

Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2024-01-04 The Collected Works of Charlotte Perkins Gilman is a compelling anthology that encapsulates the diverse literary contributions of one of the most significant feminist writers of the late 19th and early 20th centuries This collection includes her renowned short stories such as The Yellow Wallpaper along with thought provoking essays and poems that reflect her groundbreaking perspectives on gender mental health and societal norms Gilman's distinctive style characterized by sharp realism and poignant narrative invites readers to engage deeply with the complexities of women's lived experiences in a patriarchal society. Her work emerges from the rich context of early feminist literature, challenging conventions and advocating for women's rights in a rapidly changing world. Charlotte Perkins Gilman (1860-1935) was a prominent social reformer, lecturer, and writer whose own struggles with mental health and domesticity profoundly informed her writings. A key figure in the women's movement, Gilman utilized her personal experiences to critique societal structures and advocate for economic independence and self-expression for women. Her unique perspective as both a writer and a member of the feminist community allowed her to craft narratives that resonate with timeless relevance. This anthology serves as an essential resource for anyone interested in feminist literature, American culture, or social reform. Readers will find in Gilman's collected works not only a voice advocating for change but also a deep exploration of the human spirit confronted by the constraints of society. An indispensable read for scholars, students, and general readers alike, this collection illuminates the enduring power of Gilman's literary legacy.
