Milk Street Backroads Italy Christopher Kimball, J. M. Hirsch, 2025-04-15 Discover the real techniques ingredients and stories behind the Italian dishes you know and love and the ones you've yet to try with 175 delicious recipes that bring simplicity back to Italian cooking from the James Beard Award winning team at Milk Street. Forget everything you thought you knew about Italian food. In Italy cooks throw away their garlic they don't stir their polenta and they never labor over pans of risotto. But they do make enormous meatballs that are tender and light and they occasionally break all the rules when making pasta. The editors at Milk Street have spent years scouring small eateries local markets farms and home kitchens from Lombardy to Calabria and from Sardinia to Sicily in search of fresh takes on classic recipes as well as little known regional favorites that never crossed the Atlantic. On our travels we found new ways with pasta from foolproof cacio e pepe in Rome to Puglia's olive oil crisped fettuccine with chickpeas and a lemony pesto from Amalfi where the pasta itself is enriched with citrus. Plus some surprising tomato sauces including spaghetti all'assassina from Bari spicy charred and made in one skillet. We visited a Neapolitan trattoria where five sisters serenade diners with opera and serve an eggplant Parmesan that's rich but never fried In Northern Italy we made meatball like bread dumplings simmered in chicken broth And in Sardinia a hearty herb soup studded with pancetta beans and tiny nuggets of pasta Milk Street Backroads Italy give you a seat at the table with Italian cooks sharing the food they love handed down from generation to generation West Point Market Cookbook Russ Vernon,2008 In Seattle people swear by Pike Place Market In the Big Apple native New Yorkers trek to Zabar's In Northeast Ohio everyone salivates at the thought of West Point Market's Killer Brownies West Point Market a market like no other packs 350 varieties of cheese 3 000 different wines and 8 200 international gourmet items into 25 000 square feet of sheer culinary heaven Family owned since 1936 the Market's national reputation for quality and panache attracts professional chefs party planners gastronomic connoisseurs and anyone who savors a dish that adds spice to life literally
