Dances with Devils Jacques Pauw, 2011-02-28 For more than a decade Jacques Pauw has traversed his native continent in pursuit of warlords and drug traffickers child soldiers and charlatans adventure and anarchy What he found was a rich array of personalities and a panoply of stories ranging from the profoundly tragic to the intensely personal Pauw's stories range from South Africa to Rwanda from Sierra Leone and the Sudan to Mozambique Readers are taken behind the scenes of sensational news reports with compassion humour and occasional cynicism and emerge in the knowledge that even if it's true that there is nothing new out of Africa the writer has found fresh ways to present time honoured tales of love life misery and mortality Rwanda Susan Thomson,2018-04-24 A sobering study of the troubled African nation both pre and post genocide and its uncertain future The brutal civil war between Hutu and Tutsi factions in Rwanda ended in 1994 when the Rwandan Patriotic Front came to power and embarked on an ambitious social political and economic project to remake the devastated central east African nation Susan Thomson who witnessed the hostilities firsthand has written a provocative modern history of the country its rulers and its people covering the years prior to during and following the genocidal conflict Thomson's hard hitting analysis explores the key political events that led to the ascendance of the Rwandan Patriotic Front and its leader President Paul Kagame This important and controversial study examines the country's transition from war to reconciliation from the perspective of ordinary Rwandan citizens Tutsi and Hutu alike and raises serious questions about the stability of the current peace the methods and motivations of the ruling regime and its troubling ties to the past and the likelihood of a genocide free future From Metropolis to Wilderness: An Empowering Journey Doug Williamson,2017-07-05 This is a book about a life a life of travel and learning Doug Williamson was born in South Africa He has had several careers and lived in seven different countries Now he lives in Cambridge with his wife and much loved poodle Reading on Location Luisa Moncada,2016-12-01 From the charming city of Bath featured in Jane Austen's Persuasion to the Amazon of Mario Vargas Llosa's La Casa Verde this unique travel guide brings you to the places you've only read about Whether you want to learn more about a destination or follow in the footsteps of a favorite character Reading on Location helps you make the most of your trip Conspiracy to Murder Linda Melvern,2004 On the tenth anniversary of the horrific genocide in Rwanda an expert witness tells the first full story of the massacre's planning with damning details of Western inaction Representing Genocide Rebecca Jinks,2016-06-02 This book explores the diverse ways in which Holocaust representations have influenced and structured how other genocides are understood and represented in the West Rebecca Jinks focuses in particular on the canonical 20th century cases of genocide Armenia Cambodia Bosnia and Rwanda Using literature film photography and memorialisation she demonstrates that we can only understand the Holocaust's status as a benchmark for other genocides if we look at the deeper structural resonances which subtly shape many representations of genocide Representing Genocide pursues five thematic areas in turn how genocides are recognised as such by western publics the representation of the origins and perpetrators of genocide how western witnesses represent genocide representations of the aftermath of genocide and western responses to genocide Throughout the book distinguishes between mainstream and other more nuanced and engaged representations of genocide It shows how these mainstream representations the majority largely replicate the representational framework of the Holocaust including the way in which mainstream Holocaust representations resist recognising the rationality instrumentality and normality of genocide preferring instead to present it as an aberrant exceptional event in human society By contrast the more engaged representations often but not always originating from those who experienced genocide tend to revolve around precisely genocide's ordinariness and the structures and situations common to human society which contribute to and become involved in the violence

R2P and the US Intervention in Libya Paul Tang Abomo, 2018-05-22 This book argues that the Responsibility to Protect R2P the Libyan people played an important role in the U S's decision to act both in terms of how the language of deliberation was framed and the implementation of the actual intervention once all preventive means had been exhausted While the initial ethos of the intervention followed international norms the author argues that as the conflict continued to unfold the Obama administration's loss of focus and lack of political will for post conflict resolution as well as a wider lack of understanding of ever changing politics on the ground resulted in Libya's precipitation into chaos By examining the cases of Rwanda and Darfur alongside the interventions in Kosovo Iraq and Afghanistan the book discusses how these cases influenced current decision making with regards to foreign interventions and offers a triangular framework through which to understand R2P responsibility to prevent react and rebuild

Aden Insurgency Jonathan Walker, 2014-11-19 During the early 1960s the Cold War reached its climax Britain's dwindling power in the Middle East was under siege from Arab nationalism the Communist bloc and from American designs in the region Aden with its strategic military base and old Protectorate buffer zone was soon the main battleground The 1962 Egyptian inspired coup in the neighbouring Kingdom of North Yemen further tightened the noose So began a bitter and bloody insurgency war in South Arabia British regular and special forces were soon pitted against growing and formidable insurgency forces fighting both a war in the mountains and an urban conflict in the backstreets of Aden Intelligence agencies vied for control of hearts and minds The British launched a clandestine war in Yemen to keep their enemies at bay But still the situation in Aden spiralled out of control culminating in a bloody slaughter in 1967 In that November the British Army finally withdrew from South Arabia Aden Insurgency is the extraordinary story of Britain's last colonial conflict Using a wide range of recently released archive and eye witness accounts the author charts the collapse of the South Arabian state Set against a background of ruthless political ambition these events shaped the Yemen of today

Reporting Genocide David Patrick, 2017-12-13 The Western world's responses to genocide have been slow unwieldy and sometimes unfit for purpose So argues David Patrick in this essential new contribution to the aid and intervention debate While the UK and US have historically been committed to the ideals of human rights freedom and equality their actual material reactions are more usually dictated by geopolitical noise pre conceived ideas of worth and the media attention spans of individual elected leaders Utilizing a wide ranging quantitative analysis of media reporting across the globe Patrick argues that an over reliance on the Holocaust as the framing device we use to try and come to terms with such horrors can lead to slow responses misinterpretation and category errors in both Rwanda and Bosnia much energy was expended trying to ascertain whether these regions qualified for genocide status The Reporting of Genocide demonstrates how such tragedies are reduced to stereotypes in the media framed in terms of innocent victims and brutal oppressors which can over simplify the situation on the ground This in turn can lead to mixed and inadequate responses from governments Reporting on Genocide also seeks to address how responses to genocides across the globe can be improved and will be essential reading for policy makers and for scholars of genocide and the media
