British Museum British Museum (London), 1883 Lady Eclecte Lincoln H. Blumell, 2025-11-11 Second John occupies a rather peripheral place in the New Testament canon Consisting of a mere thirteen verses and often viewed as a kind of abstract of 1 John the letter has traditionally not garnered much individual attention While scholars have long noted that the opening address of the letter is ambiguous in some cases even problematic the received reading that is printed in all Greek editions of the New Testament for the last 150 years is and is typically translated as to an elect lady The nearly universal view in modern scholarship is to take elect lady as a metonym for a church that is metaphorically personified as a woman Drawing upon a wide range of evidence that includes Greek papyri New Testament manuscripts and a host of other sources this study shows that the received address printed in all editions of the Greek New Testament is not correct Rather the address should be rendered and translated to the lady Eclecte so that the principal recipient of the letter is a named woman This reading makes far more sense with the letter as a whole and makes it the only text in the entire New Testament canon addressed to a woman Lady Death Lyudmila Pavlichenko, 2018-02-28 The memoir of Lyudmila Pavlichenko the Russian woman who was WWII's most accomplished sniper and a friend of Eleanor Roosevelt In June 1941 when Hitler launched Operation Barbarossa Lyudmila Pavlichenko left her university studies ignored the offer of a position as a nurse and became one of Soviet Russia's two thousand female snipers Less than a year later she had 309 recorded kills including 29 enemy sniper kills By the time she was withdrawn from active duty due to injury she was regarded as a key heroic figure for the war effort To continue serving the war effort Pavlichenko spoke at rallies in Canada and the United States She toured the White House with FDR and the folk singer Woody Guthrie wrote a song Miss Pavlichenko about her exploits An advocate for women's rights she befriended Eleanor Roosevelt and toured England to raise money for the Red Army Never returning to combat Pavlichenko trained other snipers After the war she finished her education at Kiev University and began a career as a historian Today she remains a revered hero in Russia where the 2015 film Battle for Sevastopol was made about her life
