Donald F. Lach, 2010-01-15 Praised for its scope and depth Asia in the Making of Europe is the first comprehensive study of Asian influences on Western culture For volumes I and II the author has sifted through virtually every European reference to Asia published in the sixteenth century he surveys a vast array of writings describing Asian life and society the images of Asia that emerge from those writings and in turn the reflections of those images in European literature and art This monumental achievement reveals profound and pervasive influences of Asian societies on developing Western culture in doing so it provides a perspective necessary for a balanced view of world history Volume I The Century of Discovery brings together everything that a European could know of India Southeast Asia China and Japan from printed books missionary reports traders accounts and maps The New York Review of Books Volume II A Century of Wonder examines the influence of that vast new body of information about Asia on the arts institutions literatures and ideas of sixteenth century Europe

Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume II Donald F. Lach, 2010-01-15 This is the second volume in a series that traces century by century the role of Asia in the making of Europe The rise to world dominance of the Western nations in modern times and the rapid industrial growth of the West which outpaced the East in technical and military achievements have led to a historical eclipse of the ancient and brilliant cultures of Asia Historian Donald F Lach in his influential scholarly work Asia in the Making of Europe points out that an eclipse is never permanent that this one was never total and that there was a period in early modern times when Asia and Europe were close rivals in brilliance and mutual influence
