The Governance of Legal Pluralism Werner Zips,Markus Weilenmann,2011 Law is considered by lawyers and sociologists to be at the very center of social integration in Western societies whereas social anthropological discourses regard law as marginal in non Western societies Empirical studies of multi sited legal frameworks in many post colonial political settings demonstrate the difficulties to achieve any predictable mode of governance much less good governance This book challenges both the marginalization of legal arrangements and discourses in social anthropology as well as the marginalization of legal anthropology within social anthropology It combines the related fields of Political and Legal Anthropology in order to contribute towards a meaningful re integration of the anthropology of law into the mainstream of social anthropology Series Ethnologie Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 12

Homo Interrogans John Bruin,2001 Emerging from the Brentano Husserl tradition this volume charts new ground in the conceptual discourse of questioning and answering John Bruin examines the logic of interrogation and makes the case that intentionality itself has the structure of question and answer Here he breaks rank with the better known and more traditional and sets out to explore questioning from a phenomenological perspective Published in English
