The Kill A Novel:

The Kill Jan Neuharth, 2010 The Kill Emile Zola, 2007-12-18 Here is a true publishing event the first modern translation of a lost masterpiece by one of fiction's giants Censored upon publication in 1871 out of print since the 1950s and untranslated for a century Zola's The Kill La Curée emerges as an unheralded classic of naturalism Second in the author's twenty volume Rougon Macquart saga it is a riveting story of family transgression heedless desire and societal greed The incestuous affair of Renée Saccard and her stepson Maxime is set against the frenzied speculation of Renée's financier husband Aristide in a Paris becoming a modern metropolis and the capital of the nineteenth century In the end setting and story merge in actions that leave a woman's spirit and a city's soul ravaged beyond repair As vividly rendered by Arthur Goldhammer one of the world's premier translators from the French The Kill contains all the qualities of the school of fiction marked as Henry James wrote by infernal intelligence In this new incarnation The Kill joins Nana and Germinal on the shelf of Zola classics works by an immortal author who explicit pitiless wise and unrelenting always goes in for the kill The Kill Richard House, 2013 Evidence of a violent crime is found in the basement of an Italian palazzo A missing American student appears to be the victim two mysterious brothers the main suspects The strangest thing the murder seems to have been inspired by an old crime novel a book called The Kill The Novel Map Patrick M. Bray, 2013-01-31 Focusing on Stendhal G. de Nerval George Sand Émile Zola and Marcel Proust The Novel Map Mapping the Self in Nineteenth Century French Fiction explores the ways that these writers represent and negotiate the relationship between the self and the world as a function of space in a novel turned map With the rise of the novel and of autobiography the literary and cultural contexts of nineteenth century France reconfigured both the ways literature could represent subjects and the ways subjects related to space In the first person works of these authors maps situate the narrator within the imaginary space of the novel Yet the time inherent in the text's narrative unsettles the spatial self drawn by the maps and so creates a novel self one which is both new and literary The novel self transcends the rigid confines of a map In this significant study Patrick M. Bray charts a new direction in critical theory The Rougon-Macquart Cycle: Complete Collection - ALL 20 Novels In One Volume Émile Zola, 2024-01-12 Émile Zola's The Rougon Macquart Cycle Complete Collection presents an ambitious panorama of 19th century French society intertwining the fates of the Rougon and Macquart families against the backdrop of the Second Empire's social and political upheaval Zola employs a naturalistic literary style where characters are meticulously crafted and their experiences are shaped by heredity and environment This comprehensive volume encapsulates all 20 novels each a distinct exploration of themes such as class struggle industrialization and human morality enriched by Zola's dedication to depicting life with unflinching realism Zola a foundational figure in naturalism and a key member of the literary community that included luminaries like Guy de Maupassant was deeply influenced by the socio-political climate of his time His rigorous approach to research and commitment to social criticism stemmed from his desire to shine a light on the human condition and the struggles of the working class often drawing from both personal experiences and historical context The Rougon Macquart Cycle is highly recommended for readers seeking both a rich historical tapestry and nuanced character studies Zola's work remains a critical lens through which to examine the complexities of society making this collection essential for anyone interested in literature that transcends mere storytelling to confront the realities of human existence In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience A comprehensive Introduction outlines these selected works unifying features themes or stylistic evolutions The Author Biography highlights personal milestones and literary influences that shape the entire body of writing A Historical Context section situates the works in their broader era social currents cultural trends and key events that underpin their creation A concise Synopsis Selection offers an accessible overview of the included texts helping readers navigate plotlines and main ideas without revealing critical twists A unified Analysis examines recurring motifs and stylistic hallmarks across the collection tying the stories together while spotlighting the different work's strengths Reflection questions inspire deeper contemplation of the author's overarching message inviting readers to draw connections among different texts and relate them to modern contexts Lastly our hand-picked Memorable Quotes distill pivotal lines and turning points serving as touchstones for the collection's central themes
