

To Kill a Mockingbird
Chapters 26- 31 Reading Guide Answers

Chapter 26

1. Scout is growing up. Explain her feelings now about:
 - a. their former cruel games concerning Boo Radley

She now feels somewhat remorseful for their tormenting him.

- b. her remaining desire to see Boo in person

She still imagines that someday she'll meet him and they will speak to each other as if they've known each other for a long time.

- c. Atticus' apparent knowledge of their previous activities

Atticus reveals that he knows about their games all along.

- d. "Current Events"

It's a good idea, but Scout thinks it's not practical in Maycomb County since the children have few newspapers and little concept of what a current event was.

2. What is the irony of Miss Gates' lecture on democracy when compared to her comments at the trial?

Miss Gates says that we do not believe in persecuting anyone in America; she states persecution only comes from people who are prejudiced. After the trial Scout had heard Miss Gates say, "It's time somebody taught 'em (Negroes) a lesson." She is a hypocrite.

3. When Scout tries to tell Jem about Miss Gates, why does he react so violently? Explain Atticus' answer to her about this.

Jem was totally disillusioned by the outcome of the trial and is still trying to come to terms with what it showed him about people. He's still too angry and trying to sort things

Social Studies for the Twenty-First Century Jack Zevin, 2015-01-09 Now in its 4th edition this popular text offers practical interesting exciting ways to teach social studies and a multitude of instructional and professional resources for teachers Theory curriculum methods and assessment are woven into a comprehensive model for setting objectives planning lessons units and courses choosing classroom strategies and constructing tests for some of the field's most popular and enduring programs. The reflective and integrative framework emphasizes building imagination, insight, and critical thinking into everyday classrooms; encourages problem-solving attitudes and behavior; and provokes analysis, reflection, and debate. The text includes separate chapters on teaching each of the major areas of the social studies curriculum. Throughout the text, all aspects of curriculum and instruction are viewed from a tripartite perspective that divides social studies instruction into didactic, factual, reflective, analytical, and affective/judgmental components. These three components are seen as supporting one another, building the groundwork for taking stands on issues past and present. At the center is the author's belief that the heart and soul of social studies instruction perhaps all teaching lies in stimulating the production of ideas, looking at knowledge from others' viewpoints, and formulating for oneself a set of goals, values, and beliefs that can be explained and justified in open discussion. New in the Fourth Edition: Clear links to the The National Council for the Social Studies College Career and Civic Life (C3) Framework for Social Studies State Standards; Attention to impact of high stakes testing, Common Core State Standards, and related ongoing developments; Expanded and critical review of the use of internet, web, and PowerPoint technologies; Coverage of how to incorporate the many social science, humanities, and STEM fields to enrich the social studies; Updates and revisions throughout, including new research reports reflecting current findings, new examples, more media and materials resources, particularly digital resources, new and updated pedagogical features. Companion Website new for this edition. Close Reading Literature Activities for Grades 9-12, 2014-06-01
