The Song of Songs and Its Tradition in Renaissance Love Lyric Camilla Caporicci, 2025-01-29 Traditionally attributed to King Solomon and called by Rabbi Akiva the Holy of Holies among sacred Scriptures Mishnah Yadayim 3 5 the Song of Songs is one of the most fascinating and controversial biblical books and played an essential role in the shaping of European spirituality and culture Combining in a unique way a sensual and deeply lyrical celebration of love with a well established tradition of Christian allegorical interpretation this text crucial to both the Middle Ages and the early modern period held a particular appeal for poets devoted not only to religious verse but also to love poetry The Song of Songs and Its Tradition in Renaissance Love Lyric is the first systematic and wide ranging investigation of the multifaceted use of the Song of Songs in Renaissance love lyric poetry with specific attention to Italian French and especially English poetic production At the same time this investigation is embedded into a narrative that comprising two initial chapters devoted to medieval poetry and to Francesco Petrarca represents an unprecedented attempt to trace the role of the Song of Songs in the rise and development of the European love lyric following its path or rather one of its paths from the medieval origins of this tradition to the end of the sixteenth century The picture of the general impact of the Song of Songs in the development of the European love lyric is combined with in depth analysis of key works by specific authors including Dante Alighieri Francesco Petrarca Torquato Tasso Marguerite de Navarre Anne de Marquets Cl ment Marot Richard Barnfield Edmund Spenser William Shakespeare John Donne Elizabeth Melville and Aemilia Lanyer promoting a contextualization of their significance within a new interpretative framework While the comparative standpoint characterizing this study fosters a deeper comprehension of the evolution of the European love lyric its multidisciplinary approach which considers the Song of Songs as the centre of a web of dynamics pertaining to the fields of literature philosophy theology and religious and cultural history contributes to the understanding of the thought and spirit of ages crucial to the shaping of European culture Song Lyrics and Literary History Gunilla Hermansson,2025-06-12 Paving new paths for the study of the history of literature this study explores the intricate networks of one single poem across two centuries the V rvindar friska a poem meant to be sung The Swedish song V rvindar friska Fresh Spring Breezes started its public life in 1828 between the covers of a book as a poem written to a traditional melody Since then it has been reprinted translated performed and used in the most surprising contexts in different corners of the world This particular case may be rather exceptional but Gunilla Hermansson argues that the underlying dynamics are not and yet they have been underexposed in studies of literary history This exploration of V rvindar friska reveals the rich and intricate network of one text and uncovers new facets of how people have engaged with word art in their everyday lives in the modern era This network includes untraditional yet widespread uses of poetry and lyrics in lonely hearts columns and railway work and seemingly strange bedfellows such as a constellation of Nordic folk songs and American plantation songs The afterlives of this song evoke questions concerning class gender race citizenship technology and modernity from new angles as well as theoretical and methodological questions of circulation textual instability canonization paradigmatic turns uses and misuses Song Lyrics and Literary History demonstrates how poetry is transformed when shared across time borders media and social and ideological divides Being attentive to poetry meant to be sung Hermansson argues opens to a fuller and more representative picture of the cultural history of literature T.P.'s Weekly

Sapiential, Liturgical and Poetical Texts from Qumran Daniel K. Falk,Florentino García Martínez,Eileen Schuller,2018-12-24 At the third meeting of the International Organisation for Qumran Studies held in Oslo in 1998 a variety of papers were presented concerning the study of the Sapiential Liturgical and Poetical Texts from Qumran The fourteen papers selected for this volume are arranged in three sections Sapiential Texts contains four studies on different wisdom texts from Cave 4 Liturgical and Poetical Texts is formed by seven papers dealing with independent poetic or liturgical compositions while Qumran Wisdom and the New Testament presents three papers that explore the relationship of wisdom materials found at Qumran and some passages of the New Testament The volume is published in memory of Maurice Baillet who passed away shortly before the meeting It contains a biographical sketch and his complete bibliography provided by Emile Puech Medieval Song from Aristotle to Opera Sarah Kay,2022-07-15 Focusing on songs by the troubadours and trouv res from the twelfth to the fourteenth centuries Medieval Song from Aristotle to Opera contends that song is not best analyzed as words plus music but rather as a distinctive way of sounding words Rather than situating them in their immediate period Sarah Kay fruitfully listens for and traces crosscurrents between medieval French and Occitan songs and both earlier poetry and much later opera Reflecting on a song's songlike quality as for example the sound of light in the dawn sky as breathed by beasts as sirenlike in its perils Kay reimagines the diversity of songs from this period which include inset lyrics in medieval French narratives and the works of Guillaume de Machaut as works that are as much desired and imagined as they are actually sung and heard Kay understands song in terms of breath the constellations the animal soul and life itself Her method also draws inspiration from opera especially those that inventively recreate medieval song arguing for a perspective on the manuscripts that transmit medieval song as instances of multimedia quasi operatic performances Medieval Song from Aristotle to Opera features a companion website cornellpress.manifoldapp.org/projects/medieval-song hosting twenty four audio or video recordings realized by professional musicians specializing in early music of pieces discussed in the book together with performance scores performance reflections and translations of all recorded texts These audiovisual materials represent an extension in practice of the research aims of the book to better understand the sung dimension of medieval song

Searchlights from the Word George Campbell Morgan, 1926 The Song of Songs, Being a Collection of Love Lyrics of Ancient Palestine, 1921 Diachrony José M. González, 2015-12-14 Not a few of the more prominent and persistent controversies among classical scholars about approaches and methods arise from a failure to appreciate the fundamental role of time in structuring the interpretation of Greek culture Diachrony showcases the corresponding importance of diachronic models for the study of ancient Greek literature and culture Diachronic models of culture reach beyond mere historical change to the systemically evolving dynamics of cultural institutions practices and artifacts The papers collected here illustrate the construction and proper use of such models They emphasize the complementarity of synchronic and diachronic perspectives and highlight the need to assess how well diachronic models fit history The contributors to this volume strive to be methodologically explicit as they tackle a wide range of subjects with a variety of diachronic approaches Their work shows both the difficulty and the promise of diachronic analysis Our incomplete knowledge of Greek antiquity throughout time and the Greeks own preoccupation with the past in the construction of their present make diachronic analysis not just invaluable but indispensable for the study of ancient Greek literature and culture
