Work Cite A Textbook:

(Re)Constructing Memory: Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation. Authors' voices come from a variety of contexts: some historical, some contemporary, some providing analyses over time. But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity, belonging, and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced, invisible, marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative. The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider. This book is thus about who we are, not only demographically but also in terms of the past, especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks. The concluding chapters provide ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive, critical, and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts.

Teaching Bibliography, Textual Criticism, and Book History Ann R. Hawkins, 2015-10-06 Offers a variety of approaches to incorporating discussions of book history or print culture into graduate and undergraduate classrooms. This work considers the book as a literary, historical, cultural, and aesthetic object. These essays are of interest to university teachers incorporating textual studies and research methods into their courses.

Writing With Skill, Level 2: Student Workbook Susan Wise Bauer, 2013-10-08 Time-tested classical techniques: the imitation and analysis of great writers combined with original composition exercises in history, science, biography, and literature. The Student Workbook encourages independent composition, while the Instructor Text contains easy-to-use supporting information for the teacher: rubrics for grading, sample compositions, and dialogue to use while teaching. Together, the Student Workbook and Instructor Text provide a full year of middle-grade writing instruction, preparing students to enter high-level rhetoric. Skills Taught: One and two-level outlining, Writing chronological narratives, biographical sketches, descriptions, and sequences across the curriculum. Constructing basic literary essays on fiction and poetry. Researching and documenting source material. First volume of four that will prepare students for high-level rhetoric and composition. Features of the program: Writing assignments are modeled on examples from great literature and classic nonfiction. All source material for assignments is provided; no other books are needed. This Student Workbook encourages independence by directing all assignments to the student. Instructor Text, sold separately, provides scripted dialogue to use when the student has difficulty, plus detailed guidance on how to evaluate the student's work. Second volume of four that will prepare students for high-level rhetoric and composition.
