Modernism and Totalitarianism R. Shorten, 2012-11-15 Modernism and Totalitarianism evaluates a broad range of post 1945 scholarship Totalitarianism as the common ideological trajectory of Nazism and Stalinism is dissected as a synthesis of three modernist intellectual currents which determine its particular inherited character Which Way America? Lyman Bryson, 1939 The Devil in History Vladimir Tismaneanu, 2012-09-28 Offers an analysis of the relationship between communism and fascism This title examines the ideological appeal of these radical revolutionary political movements the visions of salvation and revolution they pursued the value and types of charisma of leaders within these political movements and their legacies in contemporary politics Popular Opinion in Totalitarian Regimes Paul Corner, 2009-10 A team of internationally acknowledged experts examines the question of popular opinion in totalitarian regimes looking at the ways in which ordinary people experienced everyday life in the Soviet Union Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy with consideration also of Poland and East Germany between 1945 and 1989 Fascism and Communism François Furet, Ernst Nolte, 2004-01-01 In his major work on communism the international bestseller The Passing of an Illusion the eminent French historian François Furet devoted a lengthy footnote to German historian Ernst Nolte's interpretation of fascism Nolte responded a correspondence ensued and the result was the remarkable exchange presented in this volume Fascism and Communism offers readers the rare opportunity to witness and learn from a confrontation between two of the world's most distinguished historians over one of the most serious subjects of our time Each from a different perspective Furet and Nolte offer compelling arguments for the common genealogy of these two ideologies as well as reasons for the intellectual community's rejection of this explosive thesis throughout the twentieth century This discussion leads to a deeper understanding of the nature of totalitarianism as well as the trajectory and interpretation of modern European history Europe's Century of Discontent Shlomo Avineri, Zeev Sternhell, 2003 With the demise of the Soviet Union and the collapse of Communism in Eastern Europe a number of questions regarding the conventional understanding of totalitarianism could now be viewed in the new light The classical studies of totalitarianism were undertaken when Nazism and Fascism had been vanquished while the Soviet system still existed this created an asymmetry which could now be overcome The ideological Cold War edge which sometimes accompanied debates about totalitarianism was similarly blunted The impetus which these developments could give to new angles of research and historical perspective was the focus of the conference Reflections on Europe's Century of Discontent held at the Institute for European Studies at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem More than a dozen participants from eight countries political scientists historians lawyers as well as political activists took part in what was an exciting exercise in re evaluation and re assessments The results are presented in this volume Fascism and Paganism Craig Read,2006 Fascism is not a modern era phenomenon nor is it unique It has been the de facto organizing principle of mankind for most of history Paganism is a form of pre modern fascism Most religious orthodoxies are of course premised on pagan cults Modern fascism uses the guise of spirituality in the form of paganism to spiritually justify its assault on civilization When the two are fused spiritual paganism with modern fascism you have a violent and hate filled philosophy that finds its expression in Hitlerism Communism and Islam This book compares these three modern forms of an age old evil that has been the main obstacle to human progress This book was written after extensive research travel interviews and help from others more knowledgeable on certain topics I don t pretend to be an expert in all the areas of historical political and economic development Nor am I posing as the expert investigator on any of the chosen themes that populate the work Thousands of more competent analysts exist in each area I wrote this book to objectively narrate a common thread and threat in human history namely that of Fascism and its orientalist genetic composition It is important in life to impartially record reality to see the world for what it is and to defend our civilization against utopia s fantasies and evil In this regard we need more literature and expositions which make the link between the various ideologies which are in essence pagan cults their commonality throughout history and their threat to civilization It is the threat posed to civilization by immoderate Islam another type of pagan cult that prompted the creation of this summary work Let me explain as well what this book is not It is not a diatribe against individual Muslims it is not a declaration of hate against any non Western people lands or empires it is not intended to be the most detailed study of any of the fascist cults past or present and it is not intended to supplant any of the existing literature on Nazism Stalinism or Islam The book does intend however to show a common framework amongst the pagan ideologies that have tried to end mankind s development and extinguish liberty To keep the book short and concise I have chosen to focus on three primary cults namely Hitler s Germany Lenin Stalinism in Russia and Islam I could have discussed other cults and movements but the essential points I want to make can be given by examining these three ideological fascisms The conclusions formed by such a comparison can be extended to various other criminal ideologies and regimes throughout mankind s history I hope the book clarifies some ideals opens some minds and gives some food for thought You can read the book in its entirety or skip to a chapter that is of more interest I have tried to keep all the footnotes down to a minimum though I do source all ideas that are not my own If you have any questions on sources content or where my ideas come from then please ask As for people who constantly harp that criticism is akin to hate speech do some reading live in a fascist state and understand what freedom really means My website is www.craigread.com Craig Read Toronto Canada Happy home of a corrupt paternalistic over governed Socialist State other works include 2 books on Churchill and USA vs Europe Power and Conflict many articles and opinions exist at www.craigread.com Communism Versus Fascism
