employment discrimination suits that can be brought by reversing the Supreme Court's decision that the timing rules for lawsuits begin when an allegedly discriminatory practice is adopted. The Supreme Court extended its string of pro arbitration cases by ruling in 14 Penn Plaza LLC v. Pyett 129 S. Ct. 1456 (4/1/09) that a collective bargaining agreement clause that clearly obligates union members to arbitrate ADEA claims is enforceable. The Supreme Court held that federal labor law preempts a California law that forbade employers that receive state contracts or other funding to discuss union matters with employees. As long as employers avoid coercion, federal law seeks to promote wide open debate on labor issues. Chamber of Commerce v. Brown 128 S. Ct. 2408 (2008). Another Supreme Court ruling discussed allows unions to charge non members who pay agency fees in lieu of joining the union amounts representing certain expenses of national litigation.
