Early Christian Martyr Stories Bryan M. Litfin, 2014-09-30 Personal narratives are powerful instruments for teaching both for conveying information and for forming character The martyrdom accounts preserved in the literature of early Christianity are especially intense and dramatic However these narratives are not readily available and are often written in intimidating prose making them largely inaccessible for the average reader This introductory text brings together key early Christian martyrdom stories in a single volume offering new easy to read translations and expert commentary An introduction and explanatory notes accompany each translation The book not only provides a vivid window into the world of early Christianity but also offers spiritual encouragement and inspiration for Christian life today
