Suburban Space, the Novel and Australian Modernity Brigid Rooney,2018-11-15 Suburban Space the Novel and Australian Modernity investigates the interaction between suburbs and suburbia in a century long series of Australian novels It puts the often trenchantly anti suburban rhetoric of fiction in dialogue with its evocative and imaginative rendering of suburban place and time Suburban Space the Novel and Australian Modernity rethinks existing cultural debates about suburbia in Australia and elsewhere by putting novelistic representations of suburbs suburban interiors homes streets forms and lives over time in dialogue with the often negative idea of suburbia in fiction as an amnesic and conformist cultural wasteland Suburban space the novel and Australian modernity shows in other words how Australian novels dramatize the collision between the sensory terrain of the remembered suburb and the cultural critique of suburbia It is through such contradictions that novels create resonant mental maps of place and time Australian novels are a prism through which suburbs as sites of everyday colonization defined by successive waves of urban development are able to be glimpsed sidelong

Entranced by Story Hugh Crago, 2014-04-24 We live in a world of stories yet few of us pause to ask what stories actually are, why we consume them so avidly and what they do for story makers and their audiences. This book focuses on the experiences that good stories generate: feelings of purposeful involvement, elevation, temporary loss of self, vicarious emotion and relief of tension. The author examines what drives writers to create stories and why readers fall under their spell, why some children grow up to be writers and how the capacity for creating and comprehending stories develops from infancy right through into old age. Entranced by Story applies recent research on brain function to literary examples ranging from the Iliad and Wuthering Heights to Harold and the Purple Crayon, providing a groundbreaking exploration of the biological and neurological basis of the literary experience. Blending research, theory and biographical anecdote, the author shows how it is the unique structure of the human brain with its layering of sophisticated cognitive capacities upon archaic emotion-driven functions which best explains the mystery of story.
