The Allied Arts Sandra Alföldy, 2012-03-28 During periods of close collaboration championed by figures like John Ruskin and William Morris architecture and craft were referred to as the allied arts By the mid twentieth century however it was more common for the two disciplines to be considered distinct professional fields with architecture having little to do with studio craft The Allied Arts investigates the history of the complex relationship between craft and architecture by examining the intersection of these two areas in Canadian public buildings Sandra Alföldy explains the challenges facing the development of the field of public craft and documents the largely ignored public craft commissions of the post war era in Canada The book highlights the global concerns of material scale form ornament and identity shared by architects and craftspeople It also examines the ways in which the allied arts are mediated by institutions and the fragility of craft commissions once considered an integral part of the built environment Considering a wide range of craftspeople materials and forms from the ceramics of Jack Sures and Jordi Bonnet to the textile work of Mariette Rousseau Vermette and Carole Sabiston Alfoldy celebrates the successes of architectural craftsmanship The first work of its kind The Allied Arts develops ideas about the complex relationship between architecture and craft that reach well beyond national boundaries Art Journal ,1960 Bookforum ,2001 Paradigms and Methods in Early Medieval Studies C. Chazelle,F. Lifshitz,2016-04-30 The articles in this volume by scholars all pursuing careers in the United States concern the theoretical approaches and methods of early medieval studies Most of the issues examined span the period from roughly 400 to 1000 CE and regions stretching from westernmost Eurasia to the Black Sea and the Baltic This is the first volume of essays explicitly to reassess the heuristic structures and methodologies of research on early medieval Europe Because of its geographic chronological thematic and methodological diversity and scope the collection also showcases the breadth of early medieval studies currently practiced in the United States Museums Journal Elijah Howarth,F. Paul Gauguin Dario Gamboni, 2014-09-15 French artist Eug ne Henri Paul Gauguin 1848 1903 once reproached the Impressionists for searching around the eye and not at the mysterious centre of thought But what did he mean by this enigmatic phrase In this innovative investigation into Gauguin s art and thought Dario Gamboni illuminates Gauguin s quest for this mysterious centre and offers a fresh look at the artist s output in all media from ceramics and sculptures to prints paintings and his large corpus of writings Foregrounding Gauguin s conscious use of ambiguity Gamboni unpacks what the artist called the language of the listening eye Gamboni shows that the interaction between perception cognition and imagination was at the core of Gauguin s work and he traces a line of continuity in them that has been previously overlooked Emulating Gauguin s wide ranging curiosity with literature psychology theology and the natural sciences not to mention the whole of art history this richly illustrated book provides new insight into the life and works of this well known yet little understood artist
