The International Cinema Society:

The Grand Central Cinema Club Alan Nolan, 2025-09-01 Dublin 1937 At the Grand Central Cinema on O Connell Street the children of Dublin watch their Hollywood heroes on the silver screen When Sylvie meets tenement boy Jem and his daredevil sister Juno they bond over their love of movies But an accident means Juno will miss the latest film at the Grand so they hatch a plot to hijack the movie reel and do a top secret private showing instead Meanwhile a sneak thief called The Magpie has his eye on the Grand Central Cinema too Can Sylvie and Jem revive Juno's ailing spirits by bringing the movies to her And will they foil The Magpie's feather brained plan in time The International Movie Industry Gorham Anders Kindem, 2000 A comprehensive history of the international movie industry during the 20th century Essays examine the film industries of 19 countries focusing on individual national movie industries economic social aesthetic technological and political ideological development within an international context The Revolution of Indian Parallel Cinema in the Global South (1968-1995) Omar Ahmed, 2025-01-23 Drawing from over a decade of research and writings this book takes you on an epic journey through the history of Indian Parallel Cinema 1968 1995 India the late 1960s Something was in the air A film manifesto penned by passionate cinephiles called for a new cinema An exciting generation of iconoclastic filmmakers were on the march the first to graduate from the newly incarnated Film and Television Institute of India seizing the moment to forge one of the first major post colonial film movements What emerged was an unprecedented level of creativity merging international influences with experimental indigenous styles and creating an aesthetic and thematic rupture and that ultimately led to new ways of making films But it is a story that has rarely been told inextricably absent from the parochial Euro centric and linear histories of film This is the story of Indian Parallel Cinema From auteurs like Mani Kaul and John Abraham to Smita Patil and Om Puri The Revolution of Indian Parallel Cinema in the Global South explores the origins evolution demise and legacy of a film movement that produced a pantheon of innovative filmmakers in excess of two hundred films and a distinctly regional identity in which film societies state funding and political insurgency were catalysts for a defiant radical dialogue much of it anti establishment that broke all the rules Most importantly this publication considers the ways in which Parallel Cinema narrated a new history from below using a range of case studies that includes Uski Roti Mirch Masala and Amma Ariyan Film Society Review, 1965 Art Cinema and India's Forgotten Futures Rochona Majumdar, 2021-10-12 Co Winner 2023 Chidananda Dasgupta Award for the Best Writing on Cinema Chidananda Dasgupta Memorial Trust Shortlisted 2022 MSA Book Prize Modernist Studies Association Longlisted 2022 Moving Image Book Award Kraszna Krausz Foundation The project of Indian art cinema began in the years following independence in 1947 at once evoking the global reach of the term art film and speaking to the aspirations of the new nation state In this pioneering book Rochona Majumdar examines key works of Indian art cinema to demonstrate how film emerged as a mode of doing history and that in so doing it anticipated some of the most influential insights of postcolonial thought Majumdar details how filmmakers as well as a host of film societies and publications sought to foster a new cinematic culture for the new nation fueled by enthusiasm for a future of progress and development Good films would help make good citizens art cinema would not only earn global prestige but also shape discerning individuals capable of exercising aesthetic and political judgment During the 1960s however Satyajit Ray Mrinal Sen and Ritwik Ghatak the leading figures of Indian art cinema became disillusioned with the belief that film was integral to national development Instead Majumdar contends their works captured the unresolvable contradictions of the postcolonial present which pointed toward possible yet unrealized futures Analyzing the films of Ray Sen and Ghatak and working through previously unexplored archives of film society publications Majumdar offers a radical reinterpretation of Indian film history Art Cinema and India's Forgotten Futures offers sweeping new insights into film's relationship with the postcolonial condition and its role in decolonial imaginations of the future

Identity, Nationhood and Bangladesh Independent Cinema Fahmidul Haq,Brian Shoesmith,2022-07-08 This book analyses how independent filmmakers from Bangladesh have represented national identity in their films The focus of this book is on independent and art house filmmakers and how cinema plays a vital role in constructing national and cultural identity The authors examine post 2000 films which predominantly deal with issues of national identity and demonstrate how they tackle questions of national identity Bangladesh is seemingly a homogenous country consisting 98% of Bengali and 90% of Muslim This majority group has two dominant identities Bengaliness the ethno linguistic identity and Muslimness the religious identity Bengaliness is perceived as secular modern whereas Muslimness is perceived as traditional and conservative However Bangladeshi independent and art house filmmakers portray the nationhood of the country with an enthusiasm and liveliness that exceeds these two categories In addition to these categories the authors add two more dimensions to the approach to discuss identity Popular Religion and Transformation The study argues that these identity categories are represented in the films and that they both reproduce and challenge dominant discourses of nationalism Providing a new addition to the discourse of contemporary national identity the book will be of interest to researchers studying international film and media studies independent cinema studies Asian cinema and South Asian culture politics and identity politics
