Summer Math For Incoming 2nd Grader:

Transition from Rejection to Embraced Gabriella Abigail Everett, 2024-12-13 Gabriella Abigail Everett is a girl born into a boy's body. Her dad wanted an athletic boy but she was not athletic but musically inclined. Even though she despised her childhood and most of her youth she became a musician, teacher, and theologian still having emotional ups and downs. At age 49 Gabriella married her soulmate. She is a card-carrying member of the LGBTQAI community and also a member of an affirming Christian church in the suburbs of Houston. Read her roller coaster of a story. About the Author Gabriella Abigail Everett is a retired teacher, retired pastor, amateur actress, amateur musician, long retired distance runner, amateur model, avid reader, avid car traveler, and dedicated Christian.

EducNews, 2013 Content-Based Curriculum for High-Ability Learners Joyce VanTassel-Baska, 2010-07

This newly updated edition provides a solid introduction to curriculum development in gifted and talented education. Written by experts in the field of gifted education, this text uses cutting-edge curriculum design techniques and aligns the core content with national and state standards. In addition to a revision of the original chapters, the second edition contains new chapters on topics such as second language learning, leadership, arts curriculum, and technology. The text identifies the basic principles of curriculum development, accelerated learning within the core content areas, use of higher-order process skills, development of creative student products, and concept development and learning. These techniques are incorporated into a chapter on each core content area: language arts, mathematics, science, and social studies, as well as world languages and the arts. The final chapters focus on the roles of teachers, program coordinators, and administrators during curriculum design, including selecting resources and materials, aligning curriculum, and assessing student learning.
